which he was the victim. This is the substance of the Mexican note.

"My Government is pleased to learn that the imprisonment of Jenkins stands on this clear and well-defined ground, and that the reported statements that Mexican authorities had caused the imprisonment of Jenkins because of collusion with his abductors and rebellion against the state are not seriously regarded by your Government.

the case of his abduction, not a defendant, as the Mexican Government now makes him out to be. The Mexican Government is pro-perpetrators of the crime. While the outlaws who endangered his life and took away a large part of his fortune enjoy their freedom the Mexican authorities now deprive Jenkins of his liberty. Moreover, the ground expressed for the imprisonment of Jenkins, namely that he is supposed to be responsible for the crime of rendering false judicial testimony, must be taken—and my Government directs special attention to this point—merely an expression of opinion in the part of the Mexican Government, as it is entirely unsupported by evidence. There is not produced any of the testimony rendered by him, or any extracts from such testimony tending to show correctness of this of proceedings by alleging the innocence of the prisoners, and by bringing unopposed charges against him, for a purpose; 3. first place, to divert the attention of the Government from the actual situation, namely, that Puebla, the capital of the State of Puebla, and perhaps the most important city in Mexico, was without adequate protection from those who infest the immediate neighborhood and were accused of being the cause of the trouble (without hindrance); that the failure to furnish adequate protection in this district, the Mexico, was the result of their negligence made manifest by the abduction of Jenkins, and that, in harmony with such an attitude on the part of the Mexican authorities, it was the duty of the United States duty and obligation incumbent upon them to apprehend and punish the bandits concerned in the crime of abduction.

in the second place, it appears to have been the purpose of the Mexican Government to assume a willful indifference to the feelings of the American people that have been aroused to the point of indignation by the exposure, hardships and physical suffering endured by Jenkins during his abduction and his subsequent treatment at the hands of Mexican authorities. "In view of the considerations which have been set forth and in view particularly of the belief of my Government that the charge against Jenkins of deliberate false swearing is unfounded, the Government of the United States must renew its request for the immediate release of Consular Agent Jenkins from further imprisonment."

BILLION NEEDED FOR GOVERNMENT NEXT YEAR, SAYS SECRETARY GLASS

Yearly Interest on War Debt Alone Greater Than All Expenditures for All Purposes Before Conflict.

By the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1.—The record billion-dollar Congresses of ordinary peace times faded into the past today when Secretary Glass presented the annual estimates, proposed appropriations of practically $5,000,000,000 for conducting the peace-time activities of the Government during the fiscal year 1921.

According to these figures, it will cost more than five times as much to conduct the peace-time affairs of Government as it did in the year immediately preceding the world war. The greatest individual estimates for expenditures, of course, go to the army and navy. The yearly interest on the war debt, however, is $1,017,500,000, which sum alone is greater than all the appropriations for all purposes whatsoever of any peace-time Congress.

All in all, the estimates justify the predictions made in the floor of Congress during consideration of the war tax bills that the present generation would not see the Government conducted at any expense less than $4,000,000,000 a year.

The estimated appropriations for the principal Government departments were presented as follows: Legislative (Congress), $9,025,297.25; Executive (White House and Government departments), $149,111,462.77; Judicial, $1,634,190; Army, $199,679,667.20; Navy, $245,031,804.80; Pensions, $215,030,000; Public Works, $283,921,810.17.

Miscellaneous, $852,717,627.96; Foreign Interference, $11,242,250.91.

The total of all estimates, including some comparatively minor items not included in the foregoing, is $4,855,410,021.62, the greatest sum ever asked for from any Congress when the country was not actually at war.

The estimates for miscellaneous expenditures contain some tremendous sums. For the Treasury Department more than $247,000,000 is asked, which goes largely to the enforcement of prohibition and the collection of income, corporation and excess profits taxes. For the Shipping Board nearly $448,000,000 is asked to wind up its program of storing the American flag to the seas.

Nearly $40,000,000 is asked for the Federal Board for Vocational Education, besides being expended in co-operation with the states for civilian education, as the law provides, will be used in large measure for the reconstruction of disabled soldiers of the World War. One item which has appeared repeatedly without ever becoming an actuality, appears again this year with promise to being taken seriously. It is an estimate of $287,500,000 toward a sinking fund which ultimately is to retire the public debt, which includes some $30,000,000,000 spent on the war.

Estimates for rivers and harbors appropriations included: Mississippi River, mouth of Missouri River to Minneapolis, $2,750,000; Missouri River, Kansas City to mouth, $2,100,000.

DEMONSTRATION HERE FOR TREATY PROPOSED

Committee Calls Meeting for Tomorrow to Plan Nonpartisan Move for Ratification.

More than 100 business and professional men have been invited to attend a meeting at the Noonday Club at 3:30 o'clock, tomorrow afternoon, to consider plans for a demonstration in behalf of early ratification of the treaty of peace by the Senate.

H. J. Pettengill, chairman of the board of the Southwestern Bell Telephone Company, has been the committee which issued the call for the meeting. The others signing the call are Ambassador David R. Francis, George Warren Brown, Charles M. Hays, W. A. Layman and R. F. Bush. Pettengill, Brown and Layman are Republicans, and Francis, Bush and Hays are Democrats.

The list of recipients of invitations to the meeting includes Mayor Kiel, Rolla W. Iles, M. L. Wilkinson, Edwards Whitaker, Archbishop Glennon and several clergymen and newspaper editors.

In his letter announcing the conference at the Noonday Club, Pettengill says: "Do you believe in a peace treaty and a league of nations? If so, will you attend a meeting to consider whether we shall request the Senate of the United States to put partnership aside and to harmonize differences, to agree on ratification of the treaty in order to prove our friendliness to the world, and at the same time guard our freedom of national action?"

Pettengill said that plans for a public meeting would be considered. "We believe the people are disappointed with the failure to ratify," he said, "and that a vigorous expression of this disappointment is needed."

At the same time, plans for a public jubilation over failure to ratify at the last session are being made by the Executive Committee of the anti-league organization known as the League for Preservation of American Independence. The committee is to hold a luncheon at the Planters Hotel tomorrow to consider plans for a public demonstration. Fred H. Eicke is chairman of the committee. Dr. John H. Simon, president of the organization, has telegraphed to Senator Reed, asking him to attend the proposed celebration.

2 MEN FREED IN FUR THEFT CASE

A jury in the United States District Court this morning acquitted Harry H. Miller, a salesman, 4357 Evans avenue, and George Wurth, a commission merchant, 719 North Third street, of charges of buying furs which were stolen from an interstate shipment. Wurth was acquitted by instruction of the Court, which specified that his connection with the purchase of the furs had not been proved.

Miller testified that he had not bought the furs, but had accepted them as security on a loan of $5 to one of the thieves. He did not know the furs were stolen, he said. The furs, which were not cured, were stolen from the Wells Fargo Express Co.

125,000 PACKING HOUSE WORKERS GET INCREASE

Award Retroactive to September Affects Employees in East St. Louis.

By the Associated Press.

CHICAGO, Dec. 1.—Employees of packing house firms were granted increases in wages aggregating $12,000,000 a year, in an award made by Federal Judge Samuel Alschuler, arbitrator, today. One hundred and twenty-five thousand stockyard workers in Chicago, Kansas City, Omaha, Lincoln, Fort Worth, St. Paul, East St. Louis and Sioux City are affected by the award which is retroactive from Sept. 1, 1919. The men asked to have the increase from July 1, 1919.

Unskilled workers, which comprise about 75 per cent of the employees of the packing houses, are given an increase of 7 1/2 per cent, which it is said will amount to $1.50 a week.

Members of the mechanical trades are granted an increase of 12 1/2 per cent, while their helpers are allowed a raise of 8 per cent. Men engaged in the killing and cutting gangs are given an increase of 3 cents an hour. The demand of the men for a 44-hour week and double pay for overtime was denied. At present the men receive time and a half for overtime and holiday work.

About 6000 East St. Louis Workers to Get Increase.

About 6000 East St. Louis employees of packing houses, and about 2000 in St. Louis, will receive the benefit of the wage increase awarded by Judge Alschuler. It was said at union headquarters in East St. Louis today. The four big packing houses are those of Swift, Armour, Morris and the East Side Packing Co.

A company official estimated that the total increase in the payrolls of the East St. Louis plants would be about $750,000 a year.

The average wage paid now, union officials said, is about $19 a week, although a very few workers get as high as $42.72 a week. All packing-house employees are affected except office employees and workmen in skilled trades.

URGE AMERICANS TO DELAY DEPARTURE FROM PARIS

Want Peace Delegation to Stay Until Protocol Putting Treaty in Effect Is Signed.

By the Associated Press.

PARIS, Dec. 1.—The French Representatives in the peace conference are urging the American delegates to delay their departure for home until the protocol is signed putting into effect the peace treaty with Germany. It was learned today. Although today was the date set for the exchange of ratifications of the treaty, no definite news was at hand regarding the intention of the Germans as to the signing of the protocol in which they are expected to guarantee the carrying out of the armistice terms.

The Supreme Council today adopted the terms of the reply to the recent German note regarding prisoners of war.

COAL COUNTIES UNDER MILITARY CONTROL

ation of Strip Pit Plants by State Was Started This Afternoon.

TSBURG, Kan., Dec. 1.—Military control in the mining fields of Ford and Cherokee Counties declared at noon today by Col. Holington, commanding the 1st Regiment of the Kansas National Guard. Operation of strip plants by the State began this afternoon.

Wearing army uniforms, many of the bare insignias of overseas divisions, the first contingent of the 1st Regiment of the Kansas National Guard are to dig early today.

Under the Kansas plan the mines will be run through a receivership created by the State Supreme Court with workers recruited from all parts of the State. The volunteers any any union miners who join them will be paid the regular wage scale plus the 14 per cent increase recently granted.

RECKLESS USE OF AUTOS MUST BE STOPPED, GRAND JURY IS TOLD

Judge Also Urges Immediate Action in Killings by Robbery and Thefts of Cars.

The attention of the December grand jury was directed to deaths and felonious wounding by automobiles, the theft of automobiles and killings by robbers, by Judge Garceshe today, sitting in Judge Taylor's court.

"The reckless use of automobiles must be checked," the Judge said, "and thefts of cars must be stamped out."

"Citizens are losing their lives on the public highways when held up by robbers. Immediate action is especially necessary in these cases, because, if given time, the criminals will frighten away witnesses necessary to conviction."

Pepto-Mangan Makes Rich Red Blood

Helps Restore Thin, Run-Down Men and Women to Vigorous, Full-Blooded Health

Recommended by Physicians

Sold in Liquid or Tablet Form—The Name "Gude's" the Guide to the Genuine

It is a true saying that your health is only as good as your blood. Good, rich blood manifests itself in a healthy, natural complexion; clear, keen eyes; tireless energy and enthusiasm; and an abundant supply of reserve strength.

And just as positively does poor, thin blood directly influence the entire system. Pale, sallow complexion; dull eyes; a listless step; languidness; tiredness; worn-out feeling; general dejection and unhappiness—all are positive signs that the body is not receiving its proper nourishment through the blood.

Pepto-Mangan helps restore vigorous health, because it contains the very elements so much needed by the blood to enable it to perform its functions and supply the body with nourishment, energy and strength.

For your convenience, Pepto-Mangan is prepared in tablet as well as liquid form. Both possess exactly the same medicinal value.

There is but one genuine Pepto-Mangan, and that is "Gude's". If the name "Gude's" is not on the package it is not Pepto-Mangan.

Cedar Chests as Gifts

There is something delightfully personal about a Gift Cedar Chest.

The pictured one is mahogany-covered cedar, or perhaps more properly, a cedar-lined mahogany Chest—and what could more supremely charm a woman—no matter who she is!

For a girl it's a hope chest—for a bride-to-be it is more definitely romantic—for a married woman (old or young) it is a practical necessity, and if she isn't married it is just as useful.

If you like better the rich coloring of the polished cedar (with stoutly riveted copper bands or without) we have an assortment to meet every requirement as to size, taste, price and purpose. And a Cedar Chest is such a splendid moderate cost gift.

VALLEY BODY WILL PUT WISHES BEFORE CONGRESS DEC. 8-9

Delegation of 200, to Include About 25 St. Louisans, Will Present Commercial Demands of Section.

EQUALIZATION OF RAIL RATES WANTED

Director Hines to Be Asked to Change Tariff Between St. Louis and Points in Texas.

The chief commercial demands of the Mississippi Valley upon the congress which convened today were formulated by the Mississippi Valley Association at a conference in Chicago at which St. Louis was represented by James E. Smith.

The Mississippi Valley Association is the organization formed last January to be the medium of co-ordinating the desires of the valley and speaking them. It will test its voice in Washington on Dec. 8 and 9, having called upon the Governors of the 22 states in the valley, the Mayors of the larger cities, the officers of the nine zones into which the association is divided, and representative business men from each to assemble in Washington on those days. The delegation is expected to number at least 200. Chicago has promised to send 40 men, New Orleans 30 and St. Louis is expected to send 25.

The valley men will caucus in Washington to determine the valley's full program. Certain actions, however, already have been fixed.

To Appear Before Hines. One is the appearance of the delegation before Director of Railroads Hines with a request that he immediately authorize those rail and river rates for which St. Louis and other cities have been waiting in order that they may give a greater proportion of their freight to the Government River Service, which is the barge line between St. Louis and New Orleans.

As is known, St. Louis shippers desire a rate by which they may ship by barge to some lower river port for tranship to rails which will carry the goods to Texas points from which this city now is excluded on certain commodities because of cheap water rates to Texas from New York. Similar rates to states on the east side of the river are desired.

It is felt that if these rates are not obtained before the period of Government control ends, that the railroads, back in the hands of their owners, will be unwilling to grant them.

The delegation also will appear before the Rivers and Harbors Committee of the House supporting the Newton bill, which is still in committee for the simultaneous, uninterrupted completion of navigation projects upon the Mississippi, Ohio and Missouri rivers at a cost of approximately $100,000,000.

Lakes-to-the-Gulf Plan. It will appear again before Secretary of War Baker asking his approval of the plan to connect the Chicago drainage canal with the Illinois River with a waterway sufficient to permit the passage of boats from the Great Lakes to the Gulf. The last Illinois Legislature appropriated $20,000,000 for this work, which now awaits only the approval of the War Department.

The delegation will go to the Shipping Board with a demand that a larger proportion of the nation's merchant marine be assigned to Gulf and South Atlantic ports, a measure needed to establish service between the valley and South America, now regarded as a rich trade prospect for the United States.

Whatever further measures are determined upon in caucus while in Washington will be presented to the Joint Committee on Commerce of the Senate and House.

Before departing the delegation will prepare a brief on the demands it has made and will carry it to the White House for transmission to the President that he may be informed on what the valley needs.

The delegation will hold a banquet at the New Willard Hotel on the evening of the second day of its visit.

BOY SHOT IN HEEL AS HE AND 2 OTHERS ARE CAUGHT IN OFFICES

Policemen, Attracted to Tool Plant by Strange Lights, Find Young Intruders.

Harry Helker Jr., 13 years old, of 1518 South Thirteenth street, was shot in the left heel by policemen searching the offices of the Mound Tool Co., 1203 South Seventh street, at 7:30 o'clock last night, after they had been attracted to the building by flashes of light made by paper tapers used by Helker and two companions after they had broken into the offices. Helker started to climb out of a window when the policemen fired several shots, one of them grazing his heel.

Helker's two companions, Walter Stoltz, 14, of 1320 Hebert street, and Peter McTague, 14, of 1432 St. Ange avenue, were caught inside the place. All three admitted, policemen say, having broken a window to get into the offices. They had gathered up a number of tools to carry away when the policemen arrived. The boys were turned over to their parents.

JEWES HERE PLAN TO PROTEST AGAINST MASSACRES IN UKRAINIA

Day Will Be Designated Later for Parade and Mourning by Jewish Organizations.

Arrangements for a protest demonstration against the massacres of Jews in Ukrainia were made by representatives of the Jewish organizations and churches of the city at a meeting at Hotel Jefferson yesterday. More than 150 attended.

While the date has not yet been designated, it was decided to have a street parade and make the occasion a day of mourning on the part of the Jewish residents. All Jewish business houses will be asked to close at noon.

Similar demonstrations were held last week in New York, Chicago and other large cities. Resolutions were adopted appealing to the Government of the United States and to the entire civilized world to assist in bringing about an end to the massacres.

SHOP EARLY

SHOPPING efficiency—
why not? It is universally recognized that we are living in a time which demands efficiency in a superlative degree, if an individual is to cope successfully with transpiring events.

Every one will be doing shopping for Christmas in a great of small way. One of the first steps towards its efficient dispatch is early shopping—undoubtedly wider selections, less confusion and uninterrupted attention of salespeople, point to greater satisfaction in a shopping trip. Late shopping often proves that "We Decide in Haste to Repent at Leisure." Declare yourself an alert American and shop early and efficiently.

SOCIETY AIDING IN MOVE FOR HOTEL FOR GIRLS

Many Women Co-operating With Letman Club Association in Campaign for Funds.

SOCIETY women are co-operating in the move to raise funds to buy a hotel for working girls of the city, which has started under the auspices of the Letman Club Association. The present quarters where girls throng are inadequate, and girls are refused admittance day after day. Teams of women are calling on business men and public-spirited women asking for aid in the effort to furnish a home for the young girl workers of the city.

The new hotel will have Advisory Committees who will help the girls better themselves in the business world, further their educational and recreational opportunities, and act as "big sisters."

Mrs. Marion C. Blossom is president of the Letman Club Association. Miss Letitia Parker and Miss Mary Semple Scott are honorary vice presidents. Mrs. James A. Seddon, Miss Sarah Tower and Mrs. Louis Brooks are vice presidents. Mrs. Change C. Conner Jr. is secretary. Mrs. Herman von Schrenk, treasurer, and the following are members of the board: Mmes. T. L. Anderson, John P. Boogher Jr., A. Arthur Corbitt, E. G. Glasgow, George C.

Mrs. L. T. Carroll and little daughter, Virginia, of East Orange, N. J., are visiting Mrs. Ben Carroll, 1231 Hamilton avenue.

Miss Vera Melshelmer of 3619 Lafayette avenue was hostess at a dance for about 100 friends at Liederkranz Club Saturday evening. Miss Katherine Eschman received with Miss Melshelmer, Mrs. H. J. Eschman of 2011 Lafayette avenue, and Miss Melshelmer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Melshelmer, chaperoned.

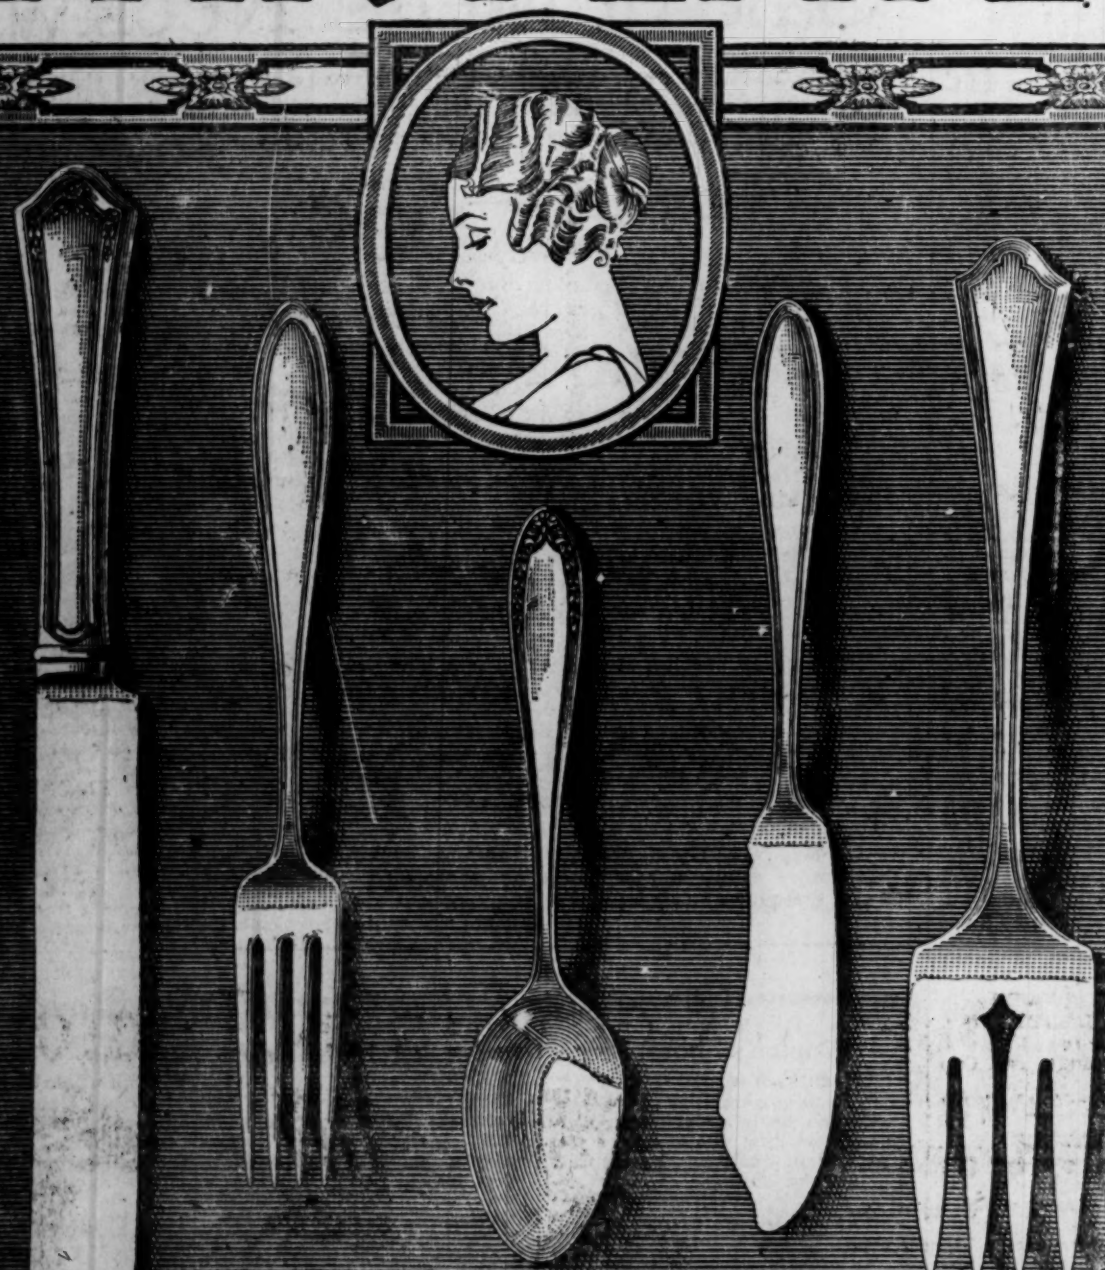

The marriage of Miss Eva Margaret Hunter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. V. Hunter, 6828 Smiley avenue, to Samuel J. Parks took place Wednesday night. Dr. Alfred F. Smith, former pastor of Centenary Church, officiated. The bride was married in a traveling suit of blue velvet and hat to match. Her corsage was of violets and sunburst rosebuds. There were no attendants. Following the ceremony a wedding supper was served to 75 friends and relatives, after which the couple departed on their honeymoon.

The sixty-seventh annual meeting of the Home of the Friendless will be held Friday at 2 o'clock at the home, 4431 South Broadway. A cordial invitation is extended to all interested in the home.

Roosevelt Child Christened Quentin. By the Associated Press.

OYSTER BAY, N. Y., Dec. 1.—Lieutenant-Colonel and Mrs. Theodore Roosevelt yesterday christened their fourth child Quentin, after his uncle, Lieut. Quentin Roosevelt, who was killed overseas in the American flying service. The ceremony was performed at Christ Episcopal Church by the Rev. Dr. Talmadge.

ONEIDA COMMUNITY PAR PLATE

PRIMROSE MONROE BRIDAL WREATH MONROE VERNON

THE housewife who is looking for silverware of standard quality and authentic design at moderate price will be glad to know PAR PLATE—made by the ONEIDA COMMUNITY and guaranteed for ten years' wear. It is the first silverware in this grade ever backed by a definite quality and time guarantee.

This guarantee by the Oneida Community means 100 per cent value for every dollar of your purchase money. In its own price range the value of PAR

PLATE is just as unmistakably fixed as the value of Community Plate. PAR PLATE bears the good old-fashioned A-1 plate.

And when it comes to selection of pattern, you will find that the PAR PLATE patterns are distinctly appealing.

They were originated by the same artists who created the exquisite COMMUNITY PLATE designs. They set a most attractive table because they are right.

Your dealer anywhere in America can give you PAR PLATE—100 per cent Value

Tuesday—2000 Pairs of Women's Well-Known " " Shoes

—in a Most Exceptional Sale

a Pair

Could we but give the name—women would come by thousands

MORE than half of these Shoes were taken from our regular Shoe Department. The balance were made by one of the best Eastern manufacturers.

We have not mentioned the former prices for the reason that they would seem almost ridiculous—the reductions are so unusual.

This should be our greatest Shoe sale ever held, because we are now better equipped to handle a great rush than at any other former event of this nature.

We will have ample floor space and plenty of intelligent and experienced salespeople to care for all customers.

Basement—Shoe Shop.

THERE are Shoes for women, misses and children; they include all the new and fashionable lasts in brown kid, gray kid, black kid, patent leather with cloth top combinations, and kid vamp with cloth tops.

The sale includes every size, and nearly all widths, although not in each style.

This is a sequel to our wonderfully successful sale held less than a month ago. The women who were unable to get Shoes in that event will be more than repaid for their wait until this time, for this is a much greater sale, and more carefully planned in every detail. The sale starts promptly Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock.

A Sale of Raincoats

NEW FARNUM PICTURE HAS FAR-EAST SETTING

"Wings of the Morning" and
"The Twin Pawns" Are First-Run Features.

An unusually strong triple bill is offering for the first time at the Liberty Theater. The dramatic film is "Wings of the Morning," a screen version of Louis Tracy's best stories, with William Farnum in the leading role. The star in this play gets far away from the Western atmosphere which is the usual setting of Farnum offerings. Here he is seen in the Far East, first as a British officer in India. His effort to save his Colonel's wife from the consequences of her own folly causes him to be dismissed from the army in disgrace and he becomes a sailor and a cruiser of the seven seas. There is a shipwreck and he is thrown on a desert island with, of course, only a beautiful young girl for a companion. Pirates invade the island and the hero and the girl give them a terrific battle, but are about to be overpowered when rescue comes from a most unexpected quarter. In the end the hero is taken back into the army and the villain is confounded.

On the Liberty bill also is a very good "crook" melodrama entitled "Thieves," with the versatile Gladys Brockwell in the leading role. There also are a Charlie Chaplin comedy of early issue, "The Floorwalker," the Fox News Weekly and other interesting short features.

At the New Grand Central "Heart of the Hills," Mary Pickford's latest drama of life in the Kentucky mountains, went into its second week yesterday with large attendance at all performances. This film drama, which was reviewed in last Monday's Post-Dispatch, will delight all the Pickford fans.

The Kings has a good double bill, featuring Mae Murray in "The Twin Pawns," a film adaptation of Wilkie Collins' famous novel, "The Woman in White." Miss Murray plays the dual role of twin sisters, daughters of a steel magnate. One is brought up by her mother in poverty and the other is reared by her father in luxury. The story is melodrama of the old school, with puzzling substitutions of one sister for another at critical moments in the action. Warner Oland, famous screen villain, is the "bad man" of the play.

Beginning tonight an added feature on the Kings bill will be Maurice Tourneur's latest production, "The Broken Butterfly." Lew Cody as the star. The program also includes a number of interesting short features.

At the Perching the leading feature is "Should a Husband Forgive?" which was well received when first produced here. It has some thrilling horse race and fight scenes.

Elsie Ferguson in "Counterfeit" and Al St. John in his first venture as a Paramount star in a comedy called "Speed" are the principal attractions at the West End Lyric.

SCHUMANN-HEINK ARRIVES

HERE FOR CONCERT TONIGHT

Mme. Ernestine Schumann-Heink, famous contralto, arrived this morning for her concert tonight at the Coliseum with the Symphony Orchestra. Advance sales of tickets have been so heavy as to necessitate special traffic rules. Vehicles may approach the Coliseum from the west only, and will proceed east after discharging their loads. Cars with chauffeurs are to park on the west side of Jefferson avenue, and those without on the east side.

The singer's program will be entirely in English, save one aria in Italian and another in French. One group will consist mostly of patriotic songs, such as Mme. Schumann-

Heink sang at the training camps during the war. The program will be as follows:

Overture to Iphigenia in Aulis. Gluck
Arias with piano—
(a) Lascia ch'io, from Rinaldo—Handel
(b) My Heart Ever Faithful—Bach
(c) Ah! mons fils, from The Prophet—Meyerbeer

Piano solo—
(a) Nocturne—Chopin
(b) Etude de Concert—MacDowell
Two movements from Symphony No. 4 in F Minor, Op. 36. Tchaikowsky
II. Andantino in modo di canzona.

III. Scherzo; Pizzicato ostinato; Allegro.
Songs with Piano—
(a) Before the Crucifix.
(b) Expectancy.

(c) Retreat.
(d) To a Messenger.
(e) Flanders Requiem—
(Written for Mme. Schumann-Heink.)
Piano Solo—
(a) Romance—La Farge
(b) Rhapsody No. 12—Liszt
Rhapsody Espana (for orchestra)—Chabrier
Songs with Piano—
(a) Dawn in the Desert—Ross
(b) Indian Love Song—Laurance
(c) The Home-rod—Carpenter
(d) Have You Seen Him in France?—Ward-Stephens
(e) Taps—Pasternack
(f) When Pershing's Men Go Marching Into Picardy—J. H. Rogers
La Farge, who attends Mme. Schumann-Heink as accompanist, is a well-known pianist-composer.

PROVIDENT ASSOCIATION OPENS DRIVE FOR FUNDS

Campaign to Get $150,000
Will Close at 6 p. m. Saturday—Some Donations In.

The St. Louis Provident Association this morning began its campaign for $150,000 to carry on relief and welfare work during the coming year. The drive will close at 6 p. m. Saturday.

Although the campaign did not start until this morning some contributions were received last week. One of the largest was $1425, received Saturday night at campaign headquarters, 409 North Broadway, from the Congregational unit of the Board of Religious Organizations. The money was contributed through the women's division and was given by the adult Bible class of the Pilgrim Congregational Church.

About 2500 men and women, grouped in three divisions, are soliciting funds. The men, under the direction of Herbert M. Morgan, will have charge of the downtown section. The various denominational units of the Women's Board of Religious Organizations, under the leadership of Mrs. N. A. McMillan and Mrs. Louis J. Brooks, will undertake the women's part of the campaign, which includes solicitation in the residential districts and in industrial plants. J. L. Usher, principal of the Desaline School, will have charge of the negro solicitors.

The men's division contains 14 units working under captains. The women's division is made up of denominational units with divisional chairmen and vice chairmen with several captains in each group.

Minimum is $150,000. Thomas H. West, president of the Provident Association, who is in charge of the campaign, says that the $150,000 sought is the minimum amount with which the Provident can carry on its work in the year and that the money raised will be put to immediate use in helping the needy of this city.

"It will not be sufficient for those who contributed to the Provident Association last year to renew their donations this year," he said. "We are asking every one of these persons to double last year's donation, and we are asking many not on last year's list at all to contribute this year. The high cost of living, the scarcity of coal and the generally disturbed industrial conditions all are combining to make work for the Provident Association because of the want they will bring to our people this winter. The money contributed to this fund will be used at once for emergency relief and for constructive relief to help the needy to help themselves and ultimately become independent."

OVERFLOW AUDIENCE HEARS "POP" CONCERT AT ODEON

The "Tarantella," Played Here for First Time, Reveals Vigorous and Refreshing Rhythm.

An audience which overflowed the seats at the Odeon heard an admirably chosen program performed by the Symphony Orchestra at yesterday afternoon's "pop" concert. The numbers ranged from the sonorous "Procession of the Knights of the Holy Grail," from Wagner's "Parsifal," to such a lively offering as Herbert's "Badinage," the latter given as an encore; and included the overture to "Ruy Blas," two intermezzi from "The Jewels of the Madonna," six ballet gems from "Le Cid" and "Tarantella," by Jacchia.

Miss Charlotte Peoge, the soloist, exhibited a firm, smooth, contralto voice, which she handled with assurance in the classic "Adieu, Forest," from Tchaikovsky's "The Maid of Orleans," and the more melodious aria, "Che Faro Senza Eulidia," from Gluck's "Orpheus and Eurydice." As an encore, she sang "My Native Land."

The bewitching melody of the second of the Wolf-Ferrari intermezzi, lost nothing at Conductor Zach's hands, and the "Tarantella," played here for the first time, revealed a vigorous rhythm that was most refreshing. Of the ballet numbers, the Madrigal and the Aubade were particularly pleasing. As encores, Conductor Zach gave a pair of no less popular old favorites than Dvorak's "Humoresque" and Mascagni's "Intermezzo."

'SPOOK' CASE CONTINUED 4 DAYS

Trial by Jury Also Granted Couple Arrested Saturday Night.

When the case of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Abbott, of 3914 Page boulevard, was called in Police Court today on charges based on a "spook" exhibition attended Saturday night by detectives and Policewoman Koch, the lawyer for the Abbotts, asked for a trial by jury and also asked for a continuance until Friday. Judge Jim granted both.

The policewoman appeared at the session as a witness, longed for and from her departed "brother Bill," and the Abbotts undertook to console her. A ghostly figure appeared, announcing itself as "Bill." One of the detectives, "Frank," who proved to be Mrs. Abbott.

Farmer Sells Meat Direct to Homes. WAKENESS Press. Kan., Dec. 1.—By cutting out the various "middle-men's" profits, a farmer living near here is doing a thriving business in selling beef to local households. He slaughters the cattle himself, thereby enabling him to undersell the market price by a wide margin, still making what he considers a good profit. So eager were the townspeople for cheap meat that the farmer says he will open a "producer's consumer" meat shop.

CHURCHES PRESENT PAGEANT

A pageant, "Builders of the City of God," was presented in St. Peter's and Holy Communion Episcopal churches yesterday morning, and in Christ Church Cathedral last night, in place of the usual sermon.

The pageant was a dramatic portrayal of the church's action-wide campaign of education and missions, and the figures included the Spirit of Missions, Social Service, Education, and the peoples of foreign countries.

GOLD MEDAL HAARLEM OIL CAPSULES

The world's standard remedy for kidney, liver, bladder and uric acid troubles—the National Remedy of Holland since 1895. Guaranteed. Three sizes, all druggists. Look for the name Gold Medal on every box and accept no imitation box.

ADVERTISMENT

Don't deceive yourself. If by the persistent use of sprays, douches, salves and other local applications you have stopped the discharge from your nose and throat. The trouble will return in a more aggravated form.

It is said that the glands of the nose and throat act as an "emergency valve" for the human system. These glands when the kidneys, skin and lungs are unable to properly dispose of some of the impurities that collect in these organs, such impurities are thrown out through the glands of the nose and throat.

Head colds, due to exposure, must not be confused with that chronic, aggravated condition of the nose and throat traceable to impure blood. The best way to relieve this condition of chronic catarrh is by cleansing the blood of all the impurities that have collected in the system. There is no better treatment than Plough's Prescription C-2223, the great blood purifier. This reliable alternative prescription treatment corrects the impure state of the blood, gives the tissues an opportunity to exercise their normal functions and results in the relief of the catarrhal condition so dangerous to good health.

To secure the best results in taking Plough's Prescription C-2223, the liver should be made active and the bowels regular. C-2223 Liver Pills are recommended especially for this purpose. These pills do not sicken or gripe. One pill is a dose and only three need be taken a week to keep the liver and bowels in a healthy condition.

Plough's Prescription C-2223 can be supplied by any good druggist in large bottles for $1.50, the pills for 25c, or the 2223 Laboratory, Memphis, Tenn., will mail both postpaid on receipt of $1.75. Samples of the Liver Pills and leaflet regarding Plough's Prescription C-2223 will be sent you without charge on receipt of this clipping with name and address.

It is said that the glands of the nose and throat act as an "emergency valve" for the human system. These glands when the kidneys, skin and lungs are unable to properly dispose of some of the impurities that collect in these organs, such impurities are thrown out through the glands of the nose and throat.

Head colds, due to exposure, must not be confused with that chronic, aggravated condition of the nose and throat traceable to impure blood. The best way to relieve this condition of chronic catarrh is by cleansing the blood of all the impurities that have collected in the system. There is no better treatment than Plough's Prescription C-2223, the great blood purifier. This reliable alternative prescription treatment corrects the impure state of the blood, gives the tissues an opportunity to exercise their normal functions and results in the relief of the catarrhal condition so dangerous to good health.

To secure the best results in taking Plough's Prescription C-2223, the liver should be made active and the bowels regular. C-2223 Liver Pills are recommended especially for this purpose. These pills do not sicken or gripe. One pill is a dose and only three need be taken a week to keep the liver and bowels in a healthy condition.

Plough's Prescription C-2223 can be supplied by any good druggist in large bottles for $1.50, the pills for 25c, or the 2223 Laboratory, Memphis, Tenn., will mail both postpaid on receipt of $1.75. Samples of the Liver Pills and leaflet regarding Plough's Prescription C-2223 will be sent you without charge on receipt of this clipping with name and address.

Made by a New, Exclusive Process
The nut margarine industry is new in the United States, and until our discovery, Nut Margarine was made by the same process used in making oleomargarine (from animal fats). Because the results of using the oleomargarine process to make nut butter were so undependable, we decided it was not good enough for us and set about developing a new process. We were successful. We called our new discovery the Ashby Process.

No Preservatives
GOODY is made from such pure ingredients by such a skillful, cleanly process that it does not need to be preserved.

The only purpose of a preservative in nut margarine is to cover up the carelessness or the ignorance of the manufacturer.

No Animal Fats
GOODY contains nothing but the white meat of the coconut, peanut oil, pasteurized milk and butter salt. Can you imagine a more appetizing food?

You can depend upon GOODY. It is always good when it has been kept as butter ought to be kept.

GOODY "spreads" like butter making it more economical, as well as more satisfactory, than other nut butters.

Food prices are high—people cannot afford to experiment—so, for your protection we guarantee GOODY.

Best—Or Your Money Back!
"Buy a pound package of GOODY from your dealer. Serve it on the table. Use it in your cooking. Try it in any way you please. Then, if you do not like GOODY as well as the choicest creamy butter you ever ate, your money will be refunded without a word."

Now we want your ideas about how best we may let everyone else know these things about GOODY.

Remember—Cash prizes for the best ideas—a pound of GOODY Free if your idea does not win a cash prize.

Here's How You Can Enter
The GOODY Idea Contest

Simply fill out the coupon and mail it to us. Then you are entered in the GOODY Idea Contest and can send us your ideas at any time before the close of the contest, which will be December 15, 1919. But to insure having your name enrolled, please fill out the coupon and mail it today. When you do send your ideas, don't worry about the form or style—simply jot them down on paper and sign your name and address.

BAKER APPROVES GENERAL STAFF ARMY MEASURE

Report Says War Shows Necessity for Fundamental Reorganization of Army and War Department.

MILITARY TRAINING IN SCHOOLS PLANNED

Says Pershing Was Ordered to Preserve Distinct Identity of American Army and Use His Own Discretion.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1.—War experience plainly shows the necessity for fundamental reorganization of the army and of the War Department itself, Secretary Baker declares in his annual report. He recommended that the emergency organization, reduced to the peacetime size, be made permanent, and "approved the general staff bill for a regular establishment 'adequate in size to be the nucleus of any great military mobilization the country may be called upon to make,' and backed up by a system of universal training."

"In such a policy," Baker said, "the accent is upon the citizen and not the soldier; the officers becoming a permanent corps of experts and the men a body temporarily devoting a portion of their time to military training in order that they may enter civil life with a sense of national service and with superior equipment for success."

Armies Reflect People.
"It is difficult to believe," he said, "denying a danger of militarism, that an army could be formed of Americans, educated in our common schools, raised in the free and democratic atmosphere of our institutions, which would still be hostile to those institutions and liberties. The World War has shown quite clearly that armies reflect the spirit of the people from whom they come rather than create a spirit of their own, so that the size of the army is not so important from the point of view now under consideration, as the kind of an army."

The selective service law was accepted as a fair means of assigning men to military service in time of war, Baker said, but compulsory service in time of peace would be "a poor substitute for the volunteer principle properly applied."

Raising a standing army by financial inducement is too costly to contemplate, he added, leaving only the method of "making enlistment in the army an educational opportunity" to furnish the troops.

The recommendation for an increased standing army, he declared, should not be taken to indicate a disinclination toward the prospect of disarmament.

Would Provide Social Virtues.
The plan recommended, Baker said, looks to the establishment of systems of schools teaching the formal branches of education and training to them the skilled trades, "so that at the end of a term of enlistment the young man entering in his nineteenth year will go back to civil life with the physical set-up which the open, athletic life of the army gives, and with the education and training which will make him more valuable in civil pursuits than he could, otherwise have been."

Social and recreational opportunities also must be supplied, he said, so that the graduate from the army "will bring back with him the social virtues which result from education of mind and hand acquired in an environment made stimulating by the presence of a high purpose and sense of service, and generous association with his fellows."

Baker said the operations in France would be dealt with in the special report being prepared by Gen. Pershing. Not even the allied war council, he said, had realized the effect upon Germany of the accelerated movement of troops and supplies from the United States, and all plans had been prepared for a vigorous campaign in the spring of 1919.

Baker opposes creation of a department of the air because of the undeveloped state of the industry, necessitating "federal regulation," as well as because of military considerations. It would be just as fatal to separate forces from the army, he maintained.

Texans Win Stock Judging Contest.
CHICAGO, Dec. 1.—Texas A. and M. won the students' judging contest at the international livestock exposition, which opened Saturday at the stockyards with record-breaking attendance and exhibits. It is announced. Texas A. and M. scored 4119, while the University of Nebraska team had 4103. Kansas State Agricultural College finished third with 4059, two points ahead of Iowa.

Britain Considers Starting Lottery.
By the Associated Press.
LONDON, Dec. 1.—The question whether the Government shall embark on a policy of raising money by lottery methods will come up before the House of Commons today, when a proposal for an issue of premium bonds will be discussed. The proposal has a warm popular feeling, but it is being strongly opposed by bankers, churchmen and others. Sermons were preached against it in many of the nonconformist churches throughout the country yesterday.

JURY RETURNS OPEN VERDICT IN MURDER OF AGED JEWELER
No Trace Has Been Found of Auto in Which Three Men Escaped After Shooting.
A coroner's jury today found that Paul Flucks, 70-year-old jeweler who was shot and killed in his store at 616 South Fourth street at 11:30 a. m. Saturday, came to his death from gunshot wounds at the hands of persons unknown. No trace has been found of the automobile in which the three men escaped, who ran from the store after the shooting.

Detective-Sergeant Kalsier, who formerly walked a beat in the neighborhood of the jewelry store, today said Flucks, who had been in business there 33 years, was regarded as a "Santa Claus" by people in the vicinity. He was always ready to help anyone who asked for aid, the detective said, and in the holiday season he would either give direct help or give money to the police to be distributed among the poor.

Two telegrams revealing the whereabouts of relatives of the jeweler were received by the St. Louis police today. One from the Chicago Police at Evansville, Ind., said Flucks had three nephews and five nieces there. One of the nieces is Mrs. Celia Flucks, daughter of the jeweler's brother, Emil, who died about a year ago. Another message was from C. J. Flucks of Fort Smith, Ark., who said he was a nephew of the jeweler.

Prizes Were for Sculpture.
Through an error it was stated in the Sunday Post-Dispatch that Adele Schulenburg and Nancy Coonsman won prizes for land-scapes in the seventh annual competitive exhibition of the St. Louis Artists' Guild. The prizes they won were for sculpture. Each prize was $50.

COKE FIRM HERE RECONSIDERS ADVANCING PRICE $1 A TON

Action Is Taken Following Protest by Coal Service Bureau, an Organization of Retailers.

A protest of the Coal Service Bureau, an organization of 38 retail coal dealers, has caused the M. W. Warren Coke Co. to reconsider its intention to charge an advance of $1 per ton on its coke, beginning today. The Warren company controls virtually all the coke marketed here. The coal dealers called attention of the Regional Coal Committee to the fact that coke was advanced 75 cents per ton on Nov. 1 and that another advance would be detrimental to the Government's desire to combat the coal strike in every way and to economize the cost of living.

WRECKED TRAIN RETURNS HERE

Wabash No. 5, Bound for Kansas City, Ran Into Open Switch.
Passenger train No. 5 of the Wabash Railroad, which left St. Louis at 10:30 o'clock last night for Kansas City, and which ran into an open switch or a broken switch at Wentzville, 20 miles west of St. Charles, Mo., at 2:30 a. m. today, returned to Union Station at 7:25 a. m.
The only person injured was A. A. Wells, 32 years old, of Moberly, Mo., fireman on the second locomotive of the double-header which was pulling the train. The two locomotives and the first two cars left the track. Wells jumped, and his right leg was broken. He was taken to St. Joseph's Hospital, at St. Charles.
It was found that a considerable time would be required to repair the track, so the train was ordered back to St. Louis.

MOTOR OFFICIAL ORDERED HELD

Head Stock Salesman of Pan Firm Is Charged With Perjury.

By the Associated Press.
CHICAGO, Dec. 1.—H. S. Wigle of Spokane, Wash., head stock salesman for the Pan Motor Co., was ordered held to the grand jury in bonds of $20,000 by Federal Judge Landis today on a charge of perjury.

Wigle is one of the defendants of the company on trial to defend charges of using the mails to defraud.
It was in testifying concerning the price he had paid for the first three shares of Pan stock he bought that Wigle drew the censure of the Court upon himself.

He testified first that he had paid the full price of $110 per share for them, and later admitted under questioning by the Judge that he only paid $5 per share for them.

ARTIST IN ACCIDENT ARRESTED

Paul van Tuyt, 35 years old, an artist, 2651 Terrace Lane, Jennings, was arrested at midnight Saturday after an automobile he was driving had crashed into a fire plug at Grand and Lawton avenues, injuring two of the three occupants of the machine.

H. C. Condie, 32, who gave his residence as Hotel Statler, and Jeff Smith, 36, 5348 North Taylor avenue, and Lew Burman, 6055 Vernon avenue, were in the machine. Smith suffered a scalp wound and Condie was cut on the face.

Police reported the automobile was traveling west in Lawton avenue at high speed when Van Tuyt, attempting the turn into Grand avenue, lost control of the machine and it swung into the curb, breaking off the fire plug. The machine was damaged $150. Van Tuyt was charged with careless driving.

Missouri Librarian to Coblenz.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.
COLUMBIA, Mo., Dec. 1.—H. O. Severance, librarian of the University of Missouri, will sail from New York City Thursday to spend a six months' leave of absence as librarian of the American army of occupation at Coblenz, Germany. About 7000 American soldiers are still stationed in Germany. Severance will have under his direction a library of approximately 20,000 volumes. While he is gone Samuel A. Jeffers of Central College, Fayette, Mo., will have charge of the university library.

RED CROSS CHRISTMAS SEALS PLACED ON SALE

Stickers Are Being Sold in City and Suburban Postoffices and in Various Buildings.

Sale of Red Cross Christmas seals for the benefit of the St. Louis Tuberculosis Society was begun today in the city and suburban postoffices, with committees of women and girls on duty at the different offices. The sale will continue daily until Christmas Eve. Mrs. A. G. Wichmann is in charge of the city sale and has about 150 helpers.

Sales in the county postoffices will be in charge of the district chairmen. Mrs. O. K. Bovard is chairman of St. Louis County. Mrs. Charles M. Biggers has the Kirkwood district and Mrs. George W. Adams Webster Groves.

The seals will be sold on the floor of the Merchants' Exchange tomorrow under the direction of Mrs. Alvin Bauman. The committee will sell Santa Claus buttons, as well as the little Red Cross stickers. Among Mrs. Bauman's assistants are Misses Mary Plant, Elizabeth Kennard and Juliet Reyburn.

The sale of seals began today throughout the State of Missouri. The Missouri Tuberculosis Association is attempting by this means to finance a campaign for public education in the fight against tuberculosis, for open-air schools, camps and hospitals. The need for this work is indicated by the draft record, showing 3481 men in Missouri, between the ages of 21 and 31, who were rejected in the draft because they showed incipient tuberculosis.

President Wilson has approved the sale of seals in a letter to Dr. Charles J. Hatfield, managing director of the National Tuberculosis Association. He wrote:

"Allow me to express again my deep interest in the work of the National Tuberculosis Association. I am very much interested to learn of the efforts of the association to raise the sum of $6,500,000 that the state budgets may be financed for the coming year, and write to wish the very best success of the effort."

ITALIAN SOCIALISTS WITHDRAW WHEN KING BEGINS SPEECH

Members of Parliament Leave, Though Crowds Cheer Monarch and Queen.

By the Associated Press. ROME, Dec. 1.—Socialist members of Parliament left the chamber shouting "Viva Socialism" this morning when King Victor Emmanuel was ready to begin the speech from the throne at the opening of the first session in six years. The King was cheered by the deputies on his entrance and crowds gave him and Queen Helena an enthusiastic greeting along the course from the Quirinal to the Parliament building.

The opening of the Parliament was as informal as a beginning of a session of the United States Congress. After the brief ceremonies the King in his address called on the people to solve the problems of peace.

He said Italy's aspirations were not considered in a spirit of justice, declaring that her hopes in the Adriatic did not cloak any military design and little economic interest. "We intend that in no way shall the peace of Europe be disturbed," he said.

COURT ORDERS DISCHARGE OF RAILROAD'S OPERATING FORCE

An order from United States Circuit Judge Hook, which was filed today in the office of Clerk's office here, authorizes the discharge of all the operating employees of the Kansas City Northwestern Railroad. This road extends from Kansas City, Kan., to Virginia, Neb., a distance of 138 miles, with a 12-mile branch to Leavenworth. The company also operates a belt line at Kansas City, Kan.

Judge Hook's order discharges L. S. Case as receiver and appoints Jay M. Lee to the position. The order then directs Lee, "for good cause shown," to release and discharge the employees, except office men in the auditing, legal and claim departments. It is ordered that a train be run to the terminus of the line in Nebraska, and that on its return the agents' supplies and tools be taken up at each station.

In the absence of any specific explanation of Judge Hook's action, it was assumed here that the operation of the road is to be abandoned.

Evidence Against Radicals Today. NEW YORK, Dec. 1.—Evidence against several alleged anarchists obtained in raids of the Lusk Legislative Investigating Committee, three weeks ago, will be presented to the extraordinary grand jury today by Alexander I. Rorke, assistant District Attorney. Only one "hunger striker" is reported to be holding out. Peter Blanka, who is said to be the ring leader. Officials believe, however, that his fast is insincere and that he is being fed surreptitiously by his comrades.

Blue Law Arrests in Maryland.
BALTIMORE, Dec. 1.—The police made a vigorous attempt yesterday to carry out the order of the grand Jury for the enforcement of the Sunday observance statute of the 1723 blue laws of Maryland. There were more than 100 arrests made on the technical charge of working on Sunday. Hundreds of other small storekeepers and proprietors of drug stores were served with summonses to answer the charge of selling on Sunday. One man was arrested for hammering in making needed repairs in his home.

DEAR TOM:

What do you think! I am going to the office every day now, and feel fine after a good day's work.

You know how I suffered from high blood pressure. It ran from 220 to 235. I had to give up work. Couldn't read or write, and was constantly in fear of a paralytic stroke.

George, who knew of my awful condition, advised me to take Devonia, which his doctor had recommended to him. I started six months ago and have been taking it ever since.

Before I had finished the first bottle I felt better, and improvement has been so rapid that my blood pressure is now only 180.

Devonia is the most wonderful medicinal water ever discovered. It has made a well man of me; and just think! a tablespoonful three times a day did the work. One bottle lasts three weeks.

Why don't you take it and get rid of your case of indigestion! It's good for that, too, believe me, and you get it on a money-back guarantee.

Yours,

Jim

This letter is based on voluntary statements of facts from persons whom Devonia has relieved.

Take Devonia, "The World's Greatest Natural Medicinal Water," for Indigestion, Constipation, Rheumatic Affections, Hardening of Arteries, High Blood Pressure, Anemia and Skin Diseases. Is not a cathartic or purgative.

Thirty-year-tested. Its healing properties assist nature in a natural way. So effective that a tablespoonful in a glass of water is a dose. One bottle lasts nearly three weeks.

If after taking a bottle or more you are not benefited, druggist will refund your money.

LABOR'S PROGRAM FOR CONGRESS OUTLINED

Equal Footing With Capital in Corporation Charters Declared Necessary.

By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, Dec. 1.—Organized labor's attitude toward many questions pending and likely to come before Congress is outlined by Matthew Woll, vice president of the American Federation of Labor, replying to a series of questions submitted to labor leaders by Chairman Hays of the Republican National Committee.

To make the fruits of labor more effectively usable for the welfare of the country, capital and labor, Woll declared, must be placed on an equal footing by making all corporation charters provide that under its powers the holders might not deny employees the right to organize, bargain collectively through representatives of their own choosing, or to determine for themselves the conditions and relations of their service. Without this check on corporate powers, he said, "the domestic conflict, now raging cannot and will not be permanently ended."

Discussing plans to settle or minimize industrial unrest, Woll declared "arbitrary exercise of unwarranted and unconstitutional authority by our courts" could not allay it.

Congress, he said, "should speedily approve the covenant of the league of nations, including the labor provisions contained in this remarkable document, which holds the hope for future peace of the world in its keeping, instead of filibustering and fiddling away like Nero while Rome was aflame."

Measures to prohibit child labor, total exclusion of immigration for two years, a Government employees' minimum wage and retirement act, a Federal employment service, elimination of convict labor competition, soldiers' land legislation, state loans to home builders and repeal of all taxes on necessities were advocated. Woll denounced the pending bill for railroad control offered by Senator Cummins, Republican, of Iowa, as "the most un-American piece of legislation ever proposed by anyone."

Women should receive equal treatment and pay with men, but should be given tasks only proportionate to their physical strength and potential motherhood, the latter stated.

SIX PERSONS INJURED IN THREE MOTOR ACCIDENTS

Husband, Wife and Son Hurt When Their Machine Is Hit by Service Car Driven by Negro.

Six persons were injured in motor vehicle accidents yesterday. Samuel Werner, 50 years old, 5941 Washington boulevard, his wife and their son, Theodore, were cut and bruised when an automobile driven by the son was wrecked at Whittier street and Delmar boulevard by a service car driven by Harry Petway, a negro, of 4256 West Belle place.

Oliver Fedke, 27 years old, an electrician, 5503 Michigan avenue, was seriously injured when knocked from his motorcycle in a collision with an automobile driven by G. C. Fisher, 339 Hickory street, at Ninth and Seward streets. He suffered a fractured leg and internal injuries.

William L. Hoffman, 47, a car inspector, 3900 Page boulevard, and Harry Barrow, 49, a baggage man, 6719 Raymond avenue, were knocked down by a truck at Jefferson and Washington avenues. Both were cut and bruised. The driver fled.

WILL OF WEALTHY SHELBYNA M.F.N. AROUSES MUCH INTEREST

Special to the Post-Dispatch.
SHELBYNA, Mo., Dec. 1.—A great deal of interest has been aroused here through the filing of the will of the late Howell Jewett, former wealthy real estate operator, in which he leaves all of his property to Mrs. Lucy V. Davis. No mention is made in the will as the reason for bequeathing the valuable estate to Mrs. Davis. She is not a relative.

The will was drawn Sept. 24, 1919, and Jewett designated Mrs. Davis as executor of the will without bond, but Probate Judge Rice Maupin ruled that she would have to give bond in the sum of $100,000 before he would grant letters of administration to her.

Jewett was the son of W. O. L. Jewett, and also is survived by a mother, brothers and sisters, none of whom were remembered in the will. It is said that the family will bring suit to annul the will, but on what grounds has not been disclosed. The relationship of Mrs. Davis to Jewett was not revealed by the will.

Jewett was about 48 years old and had been married. It is said his wife is still living. He was a real estate plunger and had made a great deal of money in the business. He was popular among the people of Shelbyna.

WOMAN'S BODY FOUND IN TRUNK

Believed to Have Been That of Michigan Girl Missing Three Years.

LAWTON, Mich., Dec. 1.—Jammed into a decayed trunk which was concealed under a pile of shingles in the cellar of her home, the body of a woman, believed to have been Maud Tabor, missing about three years, was found here yesterday. The missing girl was the daughter of the late Lester Tabor, prominent attorney. The mother and a brother, Walter Tabor, are said to reside in the West, where, it had been reported, Miss Tabor had died on a ranch a few months after her disappearance. She was a graduate of the University of Michigan and an instructor of foreign languages.

Insist on Troco

If You Enjoy Good Butter

WHEN you give your order for Troco ask for it by name—not simply for "nut butter" or "nut margarine." For the flavor of Troco is achieved by an exclusive process, which gives the true creamery butter flavor. Other products can't give you Troco quality.

Troco is made by an exclusive process from vegetable fat—the dainty fat extracted from the white meat of coconuts, which is churned with pasteurized milk.

It is the national successor to butter—the gilt edged creamery kind. For only the finest butter made has the pure sweet flavor of Troco.

Like butter, Troco is energy food of the highest value, equally digestible and easily assimilated. And being the de luxe product for table use it naturally takes first place for cooking.

And remember—Troco contains no animal oils of any kind whatsoever.

Troco is made only from rich vegetable fats and pasteurized milk by a company which makes only this one product. Old laws, made before Troco was invented, require the name "oleomargarine" on the label.

Your dealer can get Troco for you on short notice—we fill orders promptly. Insist on Troco if you enjoy fine butter—it solves your butter problems. Your dealer will give you a capsule of the same vegetable coloring butter makers use.

Closing Prices on Liberty Bonds at New York

NEW YORK, Dec. 1.—Prices of Liberty bonds at 2:55 p. m. today were: First 4 1/2%, 104 1/2; second 4 1/2%, 104 1/2; third 4 1/2%, 104 1/2; fourth 4 1/2%, 104 1/2; Victory 3 1/2%, 98 1/2.

By Lensed View From the New York

Bureau of the Post-Dispatch.

NEW YORK, Dec. 1.—The Evening Post, in its copyrighted financial review today, says:

"In the news of today and Sunday there were several developments which might have concerned the stock exchange. Congress reassembled today, and Senator Lodge announced once more his 'irreducible minimum' of reservations with which the treaty would be granted ratification.

"The State Department rejected Mexico's arguments in the Jenkins matter and renewed its demand for the Consul's resignation. Foreign exchange showed further weakness, and what would have been an overshadowing development, the weekly Federal Reserve report, showed much the lowest ratio of reserves yet reached.

"Silver bullion advanced 1/4 per cent at London, following the 3 1/2 decline from Tuesday of last week. The New York price was nominally quoted a fraction higher, but the Eastern banks again refused to buy, and exchange rates on the Chinese markets continued to decline. Exchange on Germany advanced a fraction, and more was heard today of the curious operation whereby actual German paper currency is bought in considerable amounts at a price nearly 1 cent higher per mark than the price in draft.

"Berlin has been heard. Special reason is noted for the similar speculation in Russian 'ruble notes,' for instance, with banking practically nonexistent in Northern Russia. No can buy a bill of exchange on Petrograd; also that the Russian currency bought and sold in Wall street is wholly of the 'pre-Bolshevik' issue.

"But neither reason applies to German paper marks. A weekly statement of the German Reichsbank carried along the uninterrupted story of expanding liabilities and crumbling reserves. Gold holdings stood at $285,400,000. They were $687,500,000 in armistice week, a year ago, and $430,000,000 when the war broke out. As for outstanding note circulation, that is now measured by gold values at $730,000,000. It was $450,000,000 when the armistice was signed and only $472,700,000 at the end of July, 1914.

"Following so closely upon the effort of the Federal Reserve Board to discourage expansion and strengthen the position of the reserve banks, last week's decline in the exchange to 45 cents per cent of note and deposit liabilities, as against 46.9 per cent a week earlier, has more than ordinary significance. At present the percentage of cash held is the smallest yet reached, comparing with a previous minimum of 46.5 per cent on Nov. 1914.

"Reductions for the week amounted to nearly $90,000,000 of which $33,000,000 is reported against gold. Government paper. In addition the banks bought $15,000,000 acceptances. But this heavy borrowing did not result in a corresponding increase in money. The credit at the central banks, these credits being augmented by only $7,000,000. Instead, an additional $15,000,000 in notes was taken out, while the reserve banks themselves lost $35,000,000 gold, of which $18,000,000 represented the loss from the reserve banks' balance at the Bank of England.

"As was the case last week, the interesting phase on the weekly reserve was the indication of a shifting of a part of the financial burden to the Western banks. While the New York institution's 'cash ratio' fell from 45 to 41.9, that at Chicago fell to 51.4 per cent, compared with 52.4 per cent last week and 53.6 per cent three weeks ago. St. Louis now holds 50.8 per cent cash, compared with 53.5 per cent last week. "A somewhat similar movement of the system's reserves occurred at this time last year, when the percentage fell from 50 1/2 to 49 1/2. It was on Dec. 6, this being accompanied by an increase in note circulation and deposit liabilities; but on that occasion the position was recouped to ward the end of the year by gains in cash holdings. This year it is difficult to see where such gain could come from."

DETAILED REPORT OF DAY'S TRADING IN WALL STREET

NEW YORK, Dec. 1.—The week on the stock exchange began with no essential change in the general conditions which have characterized recent operations. Aside from the American Copper, which failed almost completely and Crutcher Steel, where a 3-point drop in immediate recovery, there were no important transactions were limited to fractions. The week-end was quiet and unimportant, including the convulsion of Crutcher Steel, which was confined to a few shares. The week-end was quiet and unimportant, including the convulsion of Crutcher Steel, which was confined to a few shares.

Although call money opened at 7 per cent, it was not until midday that the market became heavy and dull at midday. CITY PLAN HEAD URGES ACTION ON TWELFTH STREET WIDENING Writes Letters to Board of Aldermen and Streets, Sewers and Wharfs Committee.

E. J. Russell, chairman of the City Plan Committee, has written to the board of aldermen and to its streets, sewers and wharfs committee, urging early action in repaving and widening of the streets so that it will have a width of 100 feet between those points. It has been in the hands of the committee since last June.

WOMAN, 80, IS LOCKED IN CLOSET BY THIEVES

Loot Valued at Several Thousand Dollars Is Obtained in Sixteen Burglaries.

In 16 burglaries yesterday an elderly woman was locked in a closet and held prisoner while thieves ransacked the house, auto trucks were loaded with merchandise and jewelry and clothing valued at $4000 was stolen from residences.

Mrs. Betty Levy, 80 years old, alone in the home of her grandson, Victor Lichtenstein, 4328 Maryland avenue, at 3 p. m., was in a room on the third floor when two men armed with revolvers drove up to the rear of the house in a small runabout, entered through the basement, proceeded to her room, where they compelled her to get in to a closet, after which they locked the door. They ransacked the house at their leisure, taking jewelry valued at $1000. The Lichtenstein family returned home at 4 p. m. The men were leaving about that time, as members of the family saw the automobile in the alley. It was gone when they discovered Mrs. Levy locked in the closet.

"Truck burglars" entered the ladies' tailoring establishment of Adolph Geffer, 4352 Manchester avenue, and carried away suits and uncut goods valued at $1500. Burglars with a truck took alcohol valued at $1100 from the Clausen Chemical Co., 2249 University street.

The Westminster Presbyterian Church, Union and Delmar boulevards, was ransacked but nothing was reported missing. A window was broken to get into the church.

At the butcher shop of Louis Plemick, 1509 St. Louis avenue, $190 hidden under a meat block was stolen.

Several residences in the southwestern part of the city were ransacked. Among them were the homes of Oscar J. Buchroeder, 3624 Meramec street; Mrs. Adele Bruno, 3225A Cherokee street; George C. Goodwin, 3430 Grace avenue; Eugene Dolan, 3469 Grace avenue; Arthur Kuepper, 3404 Humphrey street; Benjamin Frank, 3519 Wyoming street; Richard Pralke, 848A Wyand street; and Henry Bloemke, 3525 Cherokee street.

Other homes robbed in other parts of the city were those of David A. Planton, 4905 Lindell boulevard; Mrs. Kate Grady, 2444 North Grand avenue; and Dr. Alfred Vogler, 4244 West Florissant avenue.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Dec. 1.—As suddenly and unexpectedly as it began Saturday, the strike of 1500 railroad switchmen in the local yards was called off early yesterday.

The action was taken at a secret meeting, which began Saturday and lasted far into the night, when it was understood a proposition sponsored by more conservative members of the unions to end the walk-out was put to a vote and carried. At 1:30 yesterday morning a delegation of strikers appeared at the office of W. M. Corbett, general manager of the Kansas City Terminal Railway, and announced the men were ready to return to work.

It was understood that an announcement at the meeting by G. W. Anderson of Cleveland, a vice president of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, that the strike was unauthorized and the strike benefits would be withheld, had considerable to do with the final action.

Dissatisfaction with the present wage scale and with the outcome of the recent conference of national union officials in Cleveland was responsible for the strike, it is said.

C. OF C. TRAFFIC COMMISSIONER IS NAMED ON COAL COMMITTEE

Is Added to Membership of Southwestern Body on Suggestion of Regional Director of Railroads.

Philip W. Coyle, traffic commissioner of the Chamber of Commerce, was added today to the membership of the Southwestern Regional Coal Committee. It was announced that he would represent the co-operation of the chamber and of the city's business and industrial interests, in the coal conservation movement.

The other members are P. H. Greenlaw, chairman; C. A. How, J. G. Livensgood and G. W. Brice. The adding of Coyle to the committee was suggested by E. F. Bush, regional director of railroads, who is co-operating with the committee.

The committee met this morning, but made no announcement of the result of its discussions. Another meeting was set for the afternoon.

LAWYER WOULD RECOVER $2370

Suit on Notes Is Filed Against Man Recently Convicted in Drug Case.

An attachment suit to recover $2370 was filed in the Circuit Court today by James W. Griffin, a lawyer, against Henry Wilsman of 2835 Lemper avenue, known as "Big Henry," who recently was convicted of purchasing morphine, and sentenced to two years in the penitentiary. The Sheriff was authorized to levy on Wilsman's account in the Lafayette South Side Bank.

The money is alleged to be due on two notes which were given to Clarence L. Owen and assigned by Owen to Griffin.

Woman, 84, Dies in Chair.
Katharine Schulz, 84 years old, died today when sitting in the kitchen at 3546A Iowa avenue, where she made her home with her son, H. J. Schulz. Old age with complications are supposed to have caused death.

COMPLAINTS BEING MADE OF HIGHER BILLS AND POORER GAS

Daily Tests Show Quality to Be Lower Than Formerly but Above That Required by State.

The Post-Dispatch has received a number of complaints that gas bills have been going up and the quality of the gas is lower than formerly but higher than is required by the State Public Service Commission. On Oct. 1, 1915, as a war conservative measure, an order issued by the commission became effective requiring that gas be of 570 British thermal units strength at one mile from the point of manufacture. For the first 24 days of November, 1919, the average was 599. For October it was 596, for August 596, for July 597 and for June 600. In October, 1916, however, the average was 623.

The city's contract with the gas company for street lighting, Director Hooke said, calls for 18 candle power, with open burner, which is equivalent to 601 British thermal units, but the order of the commission supersedes the contract.

NUCOA

What it is -
How made -
Why white -

NUCOA is table butter. It displaces cow butter—and does it without a single apology. If it were less buttery than that which you have been brought up to call butter, it would fail utterly. It is a great big success. Our five churning plants have a daily capacity of 300,000 pounds. Just think of it! Enough butter to spread nine million slices of bread—liberally. Never let anyone tell you that Nucoa isn't butter. What else could it be when it butters all this bread every day?

Let us tell you how it is made. We import the meat of the coconut from Ceylon, Java and the Philippine Islands. This is crushed and refined into a cream white butter. It could not be finer. It does not contain a trace of water. It is just pure coconut butter. Highly refined, rich, peanut oil is added. This is just like olive oil in color and texture. The richness and mellowness of peanut oil makes it very valuable. These two products are churned with cultured milk that has first been pasteurized. When it leaves the churn it is worked and salted the same as creamery butter. The one secret is efficiency and care.

Nucoa is white because the Dairy Interests succeeded in passing a law that took from us the use of the very color that all cow butter contains. We supply this color free. Process of coloring simple and easy. It takes but a minute. Directions surround each print. Branded oleomargarine to satisfy an old Federal Law passed before Nucoa was made. Work with your Congressmen against these discriminations.

CALOTABS ARE BEST FOR COLDS AND INFLUENZA

Doctors Now Prescribe Calotabs, the Purified Calomel Tablets That Are Nauseless, Safe and Sure.

Doctors are warning the public that simple colds and mild cases of influenza often lead to pneumonia and other serious complications. They say that every cold should receive immediate attention and that the first step in the treatment is to make sure that the liver is active. For this purpose Calotabs, the perfected, nausealess calomel tablets are the surest, best and most agreeable laxative.

One Calotab at bed time with a swallow of water—that's all, no salts, no nausea, and no upsetting of the digestion and appetite. Next morning your cold has vanished, your liver is active, your system is purified and refreshed and you are feeling fine with a hearty appetite for breakfast. Eat what you please—no danger.

For your protection, Calotabs are sold only in original sealed packages, price 35c. All druggists recommend and guarantee Calotabs and are authorized to refund the price if you are not delighted with them.

ST. LOUIS POST-DISPATCH

Founded by JOSEPH PULITZER

Dec. 12, 1878.

Published by the Pulitzer Publishing Co.,

Twelfth and Olive Streets.

POST-DISPATCH CIRCULATION

Average for entire year, 1918:
Sunday ..... 353,177
Daily Ann Sunday ..... 189,726

THE POST-DISPATCH PLATFORM

I know that my retirement will make no difference in its cardinal principles, that it will always fight for progress and reform, never tolerate injustice or corruption, always fight demagogues of all parties, never belong to any party, always oppose privileged classes and public plunderers, never lack sympathy with the poor, always remain devoted to the public welfare, never be satisfied with merely printing news, always be drastically independent; never be afraid to attack wrong, whether by predatory plutocracy or predatory poverty.

JOSEPH PULITZER.
April 10, 1907.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE

Beggars in Uniform.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch.

My attention has been called to a case of alleged mendacity in the uniform of a soldier on the sidewalk between Seventh and Eighth on Market street, by Sergt. Austin, who saw a crippled man in uniform with crutches at that point soliciting money from the public. Sergt. Austin reports that he could get no satisfactory response from this man as to whether he is or is not a discharged soldier. The man refused to show him a discharge, but claimed to be a discharged soldier, and claimed that he has been refused any assistance by the Government.

It is requested that wide publicity be given to the fact that the Government provides $40 per month, with room and board, in a vocational training school for the benefit of former soldiers who were crippled in line of duty, and that there are about 100 men receiving the benefit of this allowance in the University of Missouri at Columbia, Mo., at the present time.

It is requested that wide publicity be given to the fact that the War Risk Insurance Bureau has agents in my office on the fourth floor of the Government building at the corner of Third and Olive streets, and are prepared to give immediate relief in the cases of deserving ex-soldiers who need the same, if their cases are deserving and if they can bear investigation. The American Legion also assists all deserving cases.

Since I have been in St. Louis I have made the utmost efforts in my power to give publicity to these facts, and no deserving case that has come to the notice of my office has been turned away without action.

In view of these facts it is desired to urge a public protest against the disgrace of the uniform of the United States Army by public mendacity. There is no cause for men to commit such acts. There is no Government in the world so generous to former soldiers as ours. There is no deserving case that cannot claim and receive all the needed relief and receive it promptly. It is a disgrace to the public that any man should use the uniform of the United States in that manner. No man should contribute one cent to any man wearing the uniform of the United States Army who solicits it as a beggar. The man in this case refused to have anything to do with representatives of my office. The public can draw their own conclusions as to whether or not such a case is meritorious.

JOHN H. PARKER, Colonel Infantry.

Red Cross Total Membership.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch.

We have delayed thanking the Post-Dispatch for co-operation in connection with the Third Red Cross roll call campaign because we wanted to be able to state what the approximate results of the campaign have been.

The tabulation of figures today indicates that the total dollar membership will be in excess of 131,000, which is very gratifying when the showing of other cities is considered.

Your co-operation through your news and editorial columns was very helpful in this campaign.

Thanking you in behalf of the "Great Mother in the World," yours very truly,
D. A. RUEBEL,
Chairman, Publicity Division, Third Red Cross Roll Call.

Misinformation on the League Covenant.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch.

Replying to Mr. I. C. Strait, in the Just-A-Minute column: You seem to run to fables. You relied, I am sure, on "cat" tails tied together, symbolizing the league of nations," falls short of the mark, and whatever may be the reason for the haggling in the United States Senate by certain Senators over the ratification of the league of nations, the Literary Digest beat you to it on knowing what everybody thinks. Without popular referendum, the Literary Digest compiled a vote of newspapers by sections, and the vote was in favor of the league of nations. Most of our St. Louis editorials have supported the league of nations in a nonpartisan spirit, and these editorials have been indeed faithful to the letter of the law.

Now, your six votes contention has been a nice point overlooked by many, and especially has it confused those not initiated in legal tactics. Your paragraph—the vote would have to be unanimous; one signature to the league dissenting (say the United States) would nullify the vote of the nation with the six votes. That this condition is not confined to the rural districts, however, is proved by a letter from Seattle, Wash., which says:

"An important clergyman discussed the covenant of peace as though the Monroe Doctrine clause had not been inserted; and Mr. —, for many years Judge of the United States District Court, in an answering argument, said that he did not know whether the Monroe Doctrine had been mentioned in the revised covenant."

As we all know, the covenant has not been "revised" even at this date. So the Judge was not informed.

A. HAWTHORNE.

CUT EXCESS TAXATION.

An essential step toward reduction of the high cost of living is reduction in the high cost of taxation. The first duty of Congress, next to the establishing of peace conditions by ratifying the peace treaty, is to economize in Government expenditures and thus relieve the people of the burden of taxation which enters into the price of every article through taxes on business.

It is an axiom that business cannot be taxed because business refuses to pay taxes, but passes them on to the consumer by adding them to the cost of commodities. In order to raise the enormous revenue required to carry on the war the Government practically entered into a partnership with business, sharing its profits by taking the so-called excess. We still have a tax on excess profits. We still hear discussion of revenue from excess profits from one set of officials, while another set talks of checking profiteering by punishing profiteers. What a sham!

During the war the Government encouraged high prices to check consumption and raise war revenue. It still wants excess profits, but how can it take excess profits and keep down prices?

Business has paid enormous excess profits to the Government and yet retained excessive profits for itself. This is the way of business, which takes care of itself.

As Representative Campbell of Kansas aptly remarked in a discussion of the necessity of reducing Government expenditures "the butcher passes his taxes on to the baker, the baker passes his taxes on to the candlestick maker and thus prices will remain high and taxes will remain high as long as the expenses of the Government remain high."

The butcher, the baker and the candlestick maker do more than pass their taxes on; they add a percentage of profit for every dollar paid out in taxes.

Thus we have not only an abnormal high cost of production, increased at every point by heavy taxes, but we have a profit added at every point on the way to the consumer, until there is a huge aggregate of costs, taxes and percentages of profit on costs, taxes and profits. The consumer pays all the costs and taxes and the profits on both. The public pays the freight.

Now the way to cut out excess taxes is to cut out excess expenditures. The country needs rigid economy and the place to begin is at Washington.

Former Speaker Clark tells us today that we will have a deficit of from three to five billions at the end of the fiscal year in June. We must pay the interest on our war debt of about $26,000,000,000 and provide a sinking fund to pay the debt. The deficit must be met and the way to meet it is not piling taxes on taxes, until the people are crushed under high taxes and high living costs, but by reducing expenses. We need intelligent retrenchment in every department of Government. The way to economize is to economize. Cut down expenses.

THE NEWBERRY SENATORIAL DISGRACE.

The first serious scandal under popular election of Senators is the one impeaching Truman H. Newberry's title to his seat.

In sinister methods, number of persons involved and magnitude of the sums of money distributed it is also the most tremendous and most disgraceful scandal to which the choice of a Senator ever gave rise under any system of election. Nevertheless, choice of Senators by direct vote of the people is justified even after study of the details of this unparalleled transaction in successful political achievement through corruption. Under the old system a candidate of affluence had to obtain the support, not of a majority of a Legislature, but only of a majority of that majority. Having obtained the caucus nomination he was generally sure of the support of the legislators of his party.

The appalling task undertaken when the bribery of a whole electorate is attempted is clearly indicated in the grand jury inquiry into the Newberry case. It was impossible to keep a secret shared by so great a number. Federal Judge Sessions estimates that expenditures may have reached $1,000,000.

The terrific exposure, to say nothing of drastic penalties that may be inflicted later, will prevent others from following the "Newberry way," even if the high cost of senatorships at present did not render purchase impossible to many having the inclination.

CROWDER'S REPLY TO ANSELL.

In his addendum to his annual report as Judge Advocate-General of the army, Gen. Crowder recites that, during the past year, some 16,000 cases were tried before general courts-martial, 85 per cent of which resulted in convictions. It also shows that from April 6, 1917, to June 30, 1919, there were 145 capital cases, with 35 executions.

Those figures are construed as a reply to the charges of Brigadier-General Ansell. In a way, perhaps, they are a refutation, but they do not meet the point stressed by Ansell that our present system of courts-martial is antiquated; that it offers large opportunity for harsh, vindictive judgments and denies the accused a fair chance to defend himself. The Crowder statistics may show that justice was done in our military courts, but such a fact, after all, would only be a tribute to the intelligence and fairness of the officers of such courts. The inherent defects of the system itself, with its tyrannical possibilities, would not be expunged.

What the public wants in the army is a code which will guarantee the soldier a fair trial.

NO FOOTSTEPS FOR THE FILIPINO.

Editor Gregorio Nerva of the Philippine Review, a very creditable periodical published in English and Spanish at Manila, returns home from a visit to the United States to find that he had been preceded by pusyfooters of the Anti-Saloon League from this country, who are already working for an insular prohibition enactment. Whereat the dismayed Editor Nerva protests vigorously. "If," he says, "our local conditions were the same as in the States before the prohibition act went into effect, we would be the first ones to welcome prohibition."

If we have been accustomed to think benevolently of the benighted Filipino and dwell somewhat vainly gloriously on our assistance in bringing to him the blessings in which enlightened peoples share, it may be profitable to consider the comparison in this sentence. The editor does not object to prohibition on principle. On the contrary, he thinks it is a good thing for us and would favor it at home were conditions in the islands the same as in this country. But the Filipino occupies higher ground and has maintained his superiority of position during years when American customs as well as political influence have had great results in the Archipelago.

Besides, he argues for "something new and original." Why resort to a slavish imitation of the States, adopting not merely measures that are sound, but others that are not needed, just because the States adopt them? Let us, he pleads, show the world we are able to act wisely in our own ways in which God has been so liberal in enlightening us—a nuestra manera, pues que para ello Dios ha sido tan espléndido en iluminar nuestra mente."

He makes out a case entitling the Filipino at least to beverages of the 2.75 per cent potency, perhaps to the "soft wines we keep for hospitality and for health purposes."

"NEWS FROM MEXICO."

A communication from a thoughtful reader of the Post-Dispatch, which appeared in the Letters From the People column Saturday, discussed the Mexican problem from an acute and timely angle. Comparing "news from Mexico" that is being published now with reports printed in the Post-Dispatch several years ago, our correspondent pronounces it a revamping of old tales; and he raises the very pertinent question as to whether the propagandists of war with Mexico have not resumed their activities.

The present circumstances are admittedly propitious for such efforts. The Carranza Government, which has persistently trespassed upon our rights and patience, has recently added fresh offenses. There is the report, too, of an uprising in Mexico which threatens the overthrow of Carranza, who is said to have fled from the capital. Now, if the semblance of orderly government, under which we have suffered so much, is to be smashed by another rebellion, if Mexico is to continue an endless cycle of chaos, what must we do? How long are we to endure the insults, indignities, injuries and cruel wrongs which Mexico has meted out to us? Is there no end to our patience? Is it not time to resort to force in order to compel respect for American lives and property in Mexico? And if Mexico, under the rule of Mexicans, cannot or will not meet the requirements of friendly international intercourse, is it not high time that we compel our neighbor to behave herself like a civilized nation, even if we have to establish a protectorate?

In short, is it not time to declare war on Mexico? That is the question which seemingly is being raised by the so-called news from Mexico. And with our many grievances it probably would not be a difficult matter to work public sentiment up to the pitch of supporting and acclaiming a decision to wage war upon Mexico. The decision might be phrased as intervention, but it would mean war. And we have our junkies—pretty well known they are, too—who avow desire war with Mexico. They covet our southern neighbor's oil and gold and copper and other goods and would possess themselves of such treasure at the price of young America's blood.

It may be that eventually we shall have to go to war with Mexico. It may be that Mexican stupidity and arrogance and ugly incapacity will leave us no other choice. But we all know now, as we never knew before, that war is incomparably the worst method of settling differences and that the sword may not be appealed to until every other method has been tried and tried again.

Meanwhile, as our correspondent suggests, let us be critical of the "news from Mexico." Let us examine it closely for the junkies' trademark of conquest.

The Jugo-Slavs say they could easily throw D'Anunzio into the sea. Should they make up their minds to do it we hope they'll pick out a good deep sea.

THE INTRICATE SCAPA FLOW CONTROVERSY.

From "authoritative" sources, as is said, a German intention is made known of persisting in defying the allies in the matter of compensation for the war ships sunk at Scapa Flow.

This is a claim that originated since the peace treaty was negotiated. What will the allies do, if Germany continues to refuse the 400,000 tons of dredges and tugs which are demanded in lieu of the naval tonnage sunk? Is it likely that they will go to war again on account of 400,000 tons of shipping? Will the economic blockade be renewed? What penalties short of war can be imposed to bring Germany to time?

Scapa Flow is a sea basin in the Orkney Islands. The captured German warships which were interned there were technically in the possession of the allies, though the German crews were still aboard. Obviously, the allies did not keep as watchful an eye on them as they should for those German crews opened the seacocks of the vessels and sent them to the bottom.

Of all grievances against the Germans, this is the one with which the world will have the least sympathy. If a valid claim for damages exists, it would seem to be, not against the Germans, but against the "artificial" allied officers who should have guarded the ships from mischief. Germany sees her advantage and contests payment. It might be just as well if the allies did not press their claim too insistently. It gives Germany too good a chance to win a moral and diplomatic victory.

MUST IT COME TO THIS?

A NEW RECRUIT.

JUST A MINUTE

Written for the POST-DISPATCH by Clark McAdams.

MR. ANTWERP'S OPINION.

"MAYBE we pay too much attention to everybody's business is nobody's business, and that is about the plight in which coal mining seems to be now."

"I sometimes wonder whether, instead of so much interference upon the part of the public and so many external aids to industrial ills, it would not be a good idea to have a public arena in which we could look capital and labor up once in a while and let them fight it out."

"Most of us imagine we are doing something for labor by taking a hand whenever a dispute arises, but I am in doubt. Maybe we keep it from helping itself. The same feeling exists among friends of capital. They all go to the defense of capital when something comes up. They seem to benumb it. The consequence is that when a man strikes for more pay, some place in Virginia, we find the whole country divided into two great camps. The issue by that time has become so momentous and the consequences of action by either of the original disputants assume such significance that they are both paralyzed by fear. It is not fear of one another. They are afraid of involving the vast host behind them."

"There is no more grievous wound at this hour than that occasioned by Government taking a hand in the threatened railroad strike. If all the people who will never forgive the administration for what happened at that time were lined up, they would reach from coast to coast. It seems that we are trying to live in a no-man's land between private and public control. At any rate, we have neither. I think we ought to have one or the other. Unless we do, and that pretty quickly, we are going to get things so muddled we shall be 10 years straightening them out."

"None of the democratic forebears, so far as I know, contemplated having the people vote every time somebody wanted his pay raised. We are dangerously near to that. I imagine the men who gave us the democracy we have would laugh at us if they could see what we are doing with it."

The MIRROR of PUBLIC OPINION

This column is designed to reproduce without bias the latest comment by the leading publicists, newspapers and periodicals on the questions of the day.

COMPLETED.

SENATOR LODGE, who is now anxious to make a partisan issue of the treaty of peace and submit it to the voters of the country, declares that the purpose of his "reservations," which he announces "shall stand," is to make it "safe" for America.

So "safety first" is to be our national policy, a Republican leader Lodge can dictate it.

We must repudiate all the obligations to our associates in the war which we voluntarily assumed, because it might not be "safe" to observe them.

We must break all our promises to the young democracies which we helped to bring into existence, because it might not be "safe" to keep them. We must refuse to enter any arrangement to preserve the peace of the world because it might not be "safe" for us to bind ourselves in any way to do anything which might cost us some money or put us to some inconvenience.

If "safety" had been the desideratum sought our boys who crossed the ocean in 1917 and 1918 to face the guns of the enemy would have turned about and made tracks the other way.

So we have it from Mr. Lodge himself that the "reservations" with which he has blocked the peace treaty and on which he wishes to go to the country are to make it "safe" for us.

The Courier-Journal has already named the logical ticket which the Republicans should put in the field next year if they take their Senator leader at his word and deed. Mr. Lodge has written the platform. And here we are:

For President: Henry Cabot Lodge of Massachusetts.
For Vice President: Robert Marion La Follette of Wisconsin.
Platform: He Who Fights and Runs Away May Live to Run Another Day.

SHORTEST WAY WITH PROFITEERS.

From the Philadelphia Inquirer.

Accounts of the workings in Great Britain of an anti-profiteering law, administered by a Board of Trade, will arouse a certain envy on the side of the Atlantic, where the Department of Justice still thunders in the index without discussing any substantial results. It appears that the British local tribunals, which number 1500, have already prosecuted 7350 offenders and secured 130 convictions, with fines aggregating $35,000. Considering the difficulties in the way of conclusive evidence as the exorbitance of a given profit, securing a conviction in more than every sixth case is a pretty good record. No doubt the unconvicted often headed the warning.

The principle on which the law operates is simple. Complaints are made to the local tribunals, their justice is decided by a majority vote and the cases are then taken before a court, if the defendant will not submit to the first ruling. The general level of prices has not been reduced as asserted, and probably with truth; for a business which is slower than a rise. But the definite way of dealing with individual cases agreed can hardly fail in the end to restrain profiteering generally. Moral compulsion may be great aid to legal compulsion.

One obvious advantage of the British law is the publicity which it brings to the profiteers. Most a dealer who might not be averse to grabbing a little extra money on the sly will shrink from being so public as to be pilloried before his customers and neighbors.

What Is Love?

A GROUP of young girls have written me a letter asking this momentous question:

What is love? Well, to begin with, girls, it isn't what you think it is. From the time you were born you have been consciously, or unconsciously, taught that the most important thing in a woman's life is love, and that to love and be loved was the chief end of your existence.

Therefore, you have figured love as a combination of romance and adventure, and a career—something that would be full of hectic thrills in its early stages and solid comfort in its latter estate.

Now love may have all of these marks, or it may have none of them. Sometimes Cupid delivers his divine gift wrapped up in all the pink chiffons of romance. Sometimes he simply shoves it under a girl's door, plain and unadorned, without even a blue ribbon bow tied on it, which is to say that sometimes a girl falls in love with a man who looks like a fairy prince and who woos her in beautiful Booth Tarkington language, and sometimes she falls in love with a red-headed, freckle-faced grocer's clerk who stutters and chokes on his Adam's apple every time he tries to tell her that she certainly does look good to him.

Also sometimes a girl has palpitation of the heart every time she hears the man's footsteps, and sometimes she doesn't, and her heart keeps on doing business in the same old reliable way no matter who approaches. It depends on her nervous system, and not on the state of her affections. Therefore, one must eliminate the thrill business as an indication of love, or else the crop of old maids would be unduly large.

Nor does love invariably result, in real life, in the old fairy tale ending, "and so they were married and lived happily ever after." Love often brings poverty, hard work and sacrifice, and so you see a girl's dream of love is very far away from the real thing.

But what is love? Love is made up of many things. Perhaps it begins in physical attraction—that mysterious something that draws you to one particular individual, that makes you like to be near him, that makes the touch of his hand agreeable to you, that renders his whole personality charming to you. There can be no real love between a man and woman that has not physical attraction back of it, and yet this is not enough. Nothing is more short-lived than the love of the senses.

Do not conclude that you are in love with a man because you like to dance with him or to have him hold your hand. He may thrill you for the moment, but when the music is dead, and you would find that you hadn't a single one of them left in your system by the time you had been married to him a month, and had gotten used to kissing him at breakfast every morning.

Love must have congeniality of tastes in it. Don't be misled into thinking that you are really in love with the man who is the opposite of you, and that you are forever having misunderstandings and spats. Such a man may have a certain fascination for you, that may delude you into thinking that you really care for him, but this attraction of opposites is a cruel game that nature plays on us in order to keep us the average of the human race.

But this very attraction of opposites that makes people think they love each other before marriage, makes them really hate each other after marriage, for the only love that endures is the love of the like. It is founded on a similarity of tastes and ideals. The people we enjoy being with are those who soothe us with their presence, not those who are a constant irritation.

Love must have respect in it. Especially for women. A woman who is married to a weakling may come to have a sort of maternal pity for him, as a mother for her deformed child, but this is a poor substitute for the splendid, proud love of the woman who is married to a man whom she honors and respects, and who is a real man among men.

Therefore, don't mistake pity for love. Be sorry for the drunkard, or the man who cannot make a living, but don't imagine that the feeling that you have for him is real love, because it isn't.

Above all, real love is unselfishness. It is putting somebody else's happiness and well-being above your own. It is a desire for service, and when you come to the place where you find a man whom you are willing to follow to the ends of the earth, and for whom you are willing to cook, patch and sew, and wear shabby clothes if it helps along his fortunes, ask no further what love is. You know. You have a case of the real thing.

For this is the acid test of woman's love—not what a man gives me, but what can I give him. And all other love but unselfish love is a counterfeit.

Activities of Women.

Nearly half the stockholders in the Pennsylvania Railroad are women.

The various newspapers throughout the United States employ more than 90,000 women.

In Pennsylvania it is against the law for girls to work around the anthracite coal mines.

Dr. Elizabeth Gillett, recently elected to the New York Assembly, is the third woman in that State to be so honored.

Householders in Great Britain are barred from entertaining their mothers-in-law, or other guests, longer than four weeks, by an order of the Ministry of Food.

Two Pretty and Expensive Dresses
Which Could Be Duplicated at a Very Small Cost

By MARGUERITE MARTYN.

HERE are two pretty dresses sketched from expensive imported models bearing the signature of famous French designers, but could not a clever seamstress at home approximate an imitation of them at comparatively little cost?

The one at the left is black charmeuse with a bodice of metallic brocade. These brocades are plentiful in the shops now, supplying the demand for fancy vestings. In the present example a design of fruit is carried out in rich colors, blending into bronze and gold. A sort of bib of the brocade ending in a puffed frill below the belt forms the front of the bodice. At the back, surplus ends of the charmeuse are brought around the waist in front to form the crushed belt, then back again to end in long shawl ends weighted with tassel knots. A full tunic is draped harem-skirt fashion over its straight foundation.

The second frock is of black chiffon velvet. It is all in one piece, the jacket effect being merely simulated by embroidery done in silk floss and jet beads. The straps at the elbow, the cravat and the belt, which ends in long streamers and silk tassels, are all faced with crows blue satin, affording just enough contrast in color and material to emphasize the rich blackness of the velvet.

Single "Girls" of 35 Years
Should Not Attempt Coyness
When Looking for a Mate

"Because They Can't Get Away With It," Says Berton Braley; and, Too, They Shouldn't Appear Too Reserved or Chilly; Just as Soon as the Woman of 35 Acts Like a Woman of 35 and Knows the Things a Woman of 35 Should Know, Then She Will Be as Attractive and as Marriageable as the Widows and Divorcees.

By FAY STEVENSON.

WHAT does a girl at 35 think of her chance for love and marriage? love hasn't come to her at that age, is she really "on the shelf"? Is it true that:

"The coming of the crow's feet
Marks the going of the beaux feet?"

Mr. Berton Braley, short story writer and poet, does not believe that a woman of 35 years of age or even older need feel that way at all. In fact, in a short story called "Thirty-five" in a current issue of a New York woman's magazine, he takes for his heroine a girl whom old-fashioned people would term "an old maid" and modern folk a "confirmed bachelor girl."

"I think," this young woman of 35 summers and winters says to herself, "that I won't have any more birthdays. Thirty-five! And nothing to do but grow older."

Not once did this woman think of the possibility of marriage. To her that was a lost opportunity, and yet she so desires, continued Mr. Braley. "It doesn't matter if she is 35 or 45, blond or brunette, fat or skinny, married or unmarried, and she usually does. And yet you might ask why does a man prefer a widow or a divorcee to a single woman of the same age? Why? Because the widows and the divorcees are natural women, they have a natural manner, they are neither coy nor bashful, they don't pretend to be one thing or the other, they simply assume a sophisticated, wholesome air of a full 35 or a full 45."

"Just as soon as the woman of 35 acts like a woman of 35 and knows the things a woman of 35 should know, then she will be as attractive and as marriageable as the widows and divorcees. But if she prefers to be coy and assume the manner of 'sweet sixteen,' or be cold and conservative and timid, she will remain unwed all the rest of her days."

"I have no doubt that there are a number of men of 35 and 40 who would be glad to wed a woman of their own age, but alas, when they look around and find these coy, apparently unsophisticated women, or a cold, hardly-spoken-when-spoken-to woman, they naturally turn to a widow, a divorcee or a girl of 18. Every man wants a wife who thinks and acts according to her age. In fact, every man expects a woman to be sophisticated according to her years. He doesn't object to coyness; he adores it in a young girl, but when he is talking to a woman of his own age he rightly expects her to be up to his standard mentally. The captivating little widow's recipe is 'sophistication' and the ability 'to understand.'"

Personally, I believe that the girl of 35 condemns herself as a matrimonial impossibility more than the world at large. She believes she is too old to wed, while the fact of it is she is at her most attractive time in life if she only knew it. "The widow," he says, "is a woman who knows it, knows it and the divorcee knows it. They realize they are no longer buds, but roses in full bloom, and they act accordingly. Mentally and physically woman should be at her best at that age. She is finished and polished and has reached her zenith in the woman's world. If she comes forth with all the maturity of these years and expresses her real views and thoughts she is twice as attractive as a little rosebud of a girl who is just starting."

"Occasionally, we do find just such a woman, a single woman who is really up to her years and has the manner of a married woman," I reminded Mrs. Braley.

"Yes, and occasionally such a woman is so attractive that even the youths of 25 want to marry her," he returned. "But the point is we should not have to say 'occasionally,' for the woman of 35 should find that her chances for love and marriage are even better than the very young girls. Her age should be something in her favor rather than her detriment if she knows how to value those years. It seems to me that the woman of 35 who wishes to wed must be her natural self and express the thoughts of a woman of 35. At any rate, that has always been the attitude of all the women I have ever met who made late marriages."

More than 2000 women and girls employed in the Bureau of War Risk Insurance in Washington, are up in arms and threaten dire things because the directors of the Bureau have ordered the removal of all mirrors in the Bureau.

A Garden Tragedy.

ONCE there lived a big red Rose who had for a lover, the story goes, a black and yellow Bumblebee, and none in the garden was as bold as he.

He came to the garden every day, and won the heart of the Rose, they say; told her of honey he had in a cell, and other stories he told her as well, for he told Red Rose he loved her, you see, which proves he was a deceitful bee.

Because in a garden not far away, in the heart of another he held full sway; a sweet and graceful Lily told he had taken one night to the flowers' hall.

He told her, too, of honey in cells and talked to her of wedding bells, and the stately Lily bent her head and whispered "Yes" to what he said.

But this gay lover was not content; on winning hearts he seemed quite bent, and one day over the garden wall he flew to make another call.

Tall Hollyhock was growing there, and next her heart he did ensnare, and everyone said, "Twill be a match," and poor Holly thought him quite a catch.

But he lingered only his love to tell, till over her heart he cast his spell, then flew to a rose of snowy white, and on her cheek he did alight and kissed her till poor White Rose blushed; then off to another this bad bee rushed.

So from each flower their sweet he'd shoo, then gayly kiss their petals' tip and leave each one to fade and die, and this naughty bee ne'er heaved a sigh.

So in the garden one day in June the broken-hearted flowers were strewn like dead leaves blown by a gale when someone whispered round the tale, that for love of Bumblebees they died, for each had thought she'd be his bride.

Snapdragon flower with anger shook and said with very angry look, "For this dark deed Sir Bee shall pay; I'll seal his fate this very day."

She tossed her head and wore a smile this garden lover to beguile, as in the summer sun's bright ray she waited him to pass that way.

He spied Snapdragon sitting there looking sweet and very fair, he buzzed, "How sweet you look, my dear!" then he buzzed again and lingered near.

Snapdragon turned her face so sweet and Bumblebee was at her feet; he told her his love was as deep as the sea if only his sweetheart she would be.

And sly Snapdragon nodded her head, "If with me," she said, "you wish to wed just seal the promise with a kiss, that I may know you mean all this."

Then straight to his doom this bee did fly, for Snapdragon said that he must die; and just as he touched her

CHAPTER XXVIII (Continued).

"WELL, I haven't much time after work," Bliss explained doubtfully. "I have to meet my girl directly I leave off."

"Your what?" Honerton gasped, with a visible effort at self-control. "My girl," Bliss repeated. "Didn't I tell you I was engaged?"

"I don't think you mentioned it," Honerton mumbled.

"Anyway I am," Bliss continued. "She has a temporary job as typist, only a couple of streets off our yard. This is my last journey tonight. I get four hours off, so she'll be round to meet me. Couldn't you come on to the next stopping place if you are not very busy?"

"Righto," Honerton agreed. "I'll come on a little further. See you again later."

The bus started again and duly reached its destination. Bliss crossed his legs and, turning around in his seat, found Honerton waiting on the pavement.

"Now then," he invited. Honerton rested one immaculately gloved hand upon a dry spot on the front of the bus and the other upon the rail, and after a nervous glance around to be sure that they were alone, he leaned over from the curbstone in a confidential manner.

"Look here, Bliss, old chap," he began, "when I left you in the Strand, I had the hump for a time. One hates to think of a pal coming a real cropper and not seeming to have the gift, you know, for pulling himself together. You understand what I mean," he went on hastily. "Take my case, now. I have been absolutely stoney broke, but do I look it? Could any one ever guess it? That's because I've the knack of pulling myself together and making the best of things. See?"

Bliss nodded.

"Oh, yes, I see," he assented. "Well," Honerton continued, "I thought it all over, and finally I discussed it with a few of our old pals. Now don't get skittish," he exclaimed quickly, as Bliss started. "Listen to what I've got to say. I made a little proposition to them," he proceeded, drawing a sheet of paper from his pocket, "and they were all over it—over it, Bliss, I assure you. We dainty lip, her honeyed sweetness for to sip, opened wide her petals yellow and swallowed up this buzzy fellow. Within her grasp she held fast, and when she let him go at last, he rolled on the ground, all still and cold, for never again would he be bold, and tell the flowers of love untrue, under the sunny sky of blue. Then the night wind came and took away the bee and the flowers from where they lay, and the morning sun saw not a trace of the tragedist that had taken place. ## The Curious Quest

By E. Phillips Oppenheim.

CHAPTER XXIX.

BLISS awoke on the morning of the nineteenth of December with a curious little throb of expectation. He lay with wide-open eyes, looking around him. Now that the time had really come, he could scarcely believe that his year was over, his privations actually at an end. His thoughts dwelt for only a moment or two upon the changes that the day would bring him personally. The wonderful part of it all was Frances. More wonderful than anything was the fact that, at the end of these 12 long months of hardship and suffering, it was of someone else he thought and not of himself. He sprang out of bed and washed and dressed as carefully as possible. Then he counted his money. He had 32 shillings, and he owed seven for his room. He paid his bill and at a little after 8 o'clock sallied out into the street.

He breakfasted at a coffee stall and set off for Frances' lodging. She was just leaving the house as he arrived. Her face fell.

"You haven't lost your place, Ernest?" she exclaimed anxiously. He shook his head.

"I am taking a holiday," he said, "and I want you to take one, too."

"Holiday, indeed!" she echoed bitterly. "You know I can't do anything of the sort."

"On the contrary, I know that you can and you will," he replied. "If I ask nothing more of you in this world, dear, I am going to ask you to do as I tell you today. Please telephone to your people and tell them that you are unable to come to work. You might add that it will be exceedingly doubtful if you ever return at all."

She looked at him, and her hands began to tremble. For a moment she did not speak, and he found himself studying her for the last time in this guise, with a rapt and curious interest. He saw the shiny places in her worn black jacket, and the neat lace collar at her throat, grown threadbare from frequent washings. He realized all the pathos of that desperate struggle between her womanly instinct for neatness and the hard hand of poverty; the faded band of ribbon carefully arranged around her hat, the mended gloves, the shoes, both of them now with their little patch. He guessed at the quality of her miserable breakfast. There was something in her footsteps skin to the tired plot of the countless multitudes thronging their way citywards. Nothing that he himself had suffered seemed worth an instant's thought compared with the joy of his present anticipations.

"Ernest," she gasped, "has anything really happened?"

He took her arm tightly and hailed a taxicab.

MORE TRUTH THAN POETRY

By James J. Montague.

WHERE THERE'S A WILL THERE'S A BUST.
Men thought that McCoyne was a whale.
He had soaring Sierras of pelf.
And all of these mountains of kale
McCoyne had piled up by himself.
But when they had published the will
The people were startled to see
That a dumb little dame in the chorus-girl game,
Was named as his sole legatee!

As long as a man is alive
He can cling to the bubble called fame,
His great reputation will thrive
And people will honor his name.
But nine out of every ten
Their robes of distinction will shed
For folks find them out when their wills get about

But when they discovered his will
His dollars were left—every one—
To a red-headed peach who began every speech
"I'll say so," "I seen," or "I done."

When looking at men of renown—
The lordly financial elect,
Who fill half the people in town
With humble and cringing respect—
We often have wondered a bit
If we still would feel reverent thrills
For the shrewdness and sense of these excellent gents,
If we knew what they had in their wills!

"There goes that Georgetowne blouse in doctor's bill," was Eleanor's charged remark as she almost sneezed her hair pins out.
"Eleanor, dear, you're getting another of those dreadful colds," exclaimed her mother.
"Yes, and it's no wonder. I waited for more than half an hour in that sleety drizzle before a car came along. I just know a doctor's bill is going to eat up the money I saved for that adorable little blouse."
"Mrs. Barnes was telling me about Weeks' Break-Up-A-Cold Tablets," her mother interposed. "She said that Weeks' Increase a person's cold resistance so that they fight off a cold naturally."
"That's all very well," Eleanor said, half persuaded. But you know how I came along always upsets me and cold tablets usually have a cold in them."
"But she also said Weeks' haven't a speck of calomel in them—a vegetable laxative is used instead," Mrs. Fleming replied. Turning to her son, she said: "Harry, just run around to the drugstore and get a twenty-five cent box of Weeks' Break-Up-A-Cold Tablets. Be sure you get Weeks' though. Mrs. Barnes' doctor says they are the best."
Harry bought the box and Eleanor began taking the tablets. When she came down to breakfast the next morning she was all smiles. "Mother, every bit of cold has disappeared. I am going to buy that blouse today with a clear conscience, because I know Weeks' Break-Up-A-Cold Tablets are going to keep doctor's bills away for good."
